FACES OF HAMILTON COUNTY
People who call our community their own.

What makes Larry Endicott smile? "Hanging out with family," said the 14-year-old Atlanta, Ind., resident, an incoming freshman at Hamilton Heights High School. The Hamilton County 4-H'er was found Tuesday at the Hamilton County 4-H Fairgrounds, where the 4-H Fair will open on Thursday. He is a six-year 4-H'er and member of the Heartland 4-H'ers Club. He is the son of Larry Endicott Jr. and Jennifer Endicott. He completed 14 4-H projects this year. What's he enjoy most about 4-H? "Hanging out with friends and winning awards for stuff that I can usually do." What has he learned in 4-H? "How to rewire a lamp. I'm in Electric (4-H project) so a lot of electricity stuff." Three favorite projects? "Dairy Steer, Construction (Legos) and Junior Leaders." It's his first year in Junior Leaders, and he will be the overall supervisor on Monday at the Junior Leader Snack Shack at the 4-H Fair. Favorite food at the Fair? "Whatever's hot." When the weather's hot, his favorite food? "The milkshake." Favorite activity at the Fair? "I always love doing (showing) Dairy Cattle." In 4-H, he shows Dairy Steer, Bucket Calf, Swine and Rabbit projects at the Fair. Check-in for livestock is today at Fair. He raises the animals on his family farm, where the family also has two cats and raises about 80 head of steer each year. He always sells a steer in the 4-H Fair's livestock auction. What's he saving his money for that he earns from the auction? "College, a car." What he would like to tell everyone about 4-H: "If anyone's interested in 4-H, join it, and if you don't like it, you don't have to do it next year." The 4-H Fair runs Thursday through Monday with a livestock auction on Tuesday night at the Fairgrounds in Noblesville. Find a 4-H Fair schedule of the 4-H Fair in The Times.

Cicero's Faith Hittle -- the newly crowned Miss Hamilton County 4-H Fair 2022 Queen -- hopes to be a good role model for young 4-H'ers and to educate them that they can be whoever they want to be.

What's it mean to be crowned 4-H Fair Queen?

"It means so much to me. Because I remember looking up to the past queens and knowing that I wanted to be them one day because their kindness is unmatched and the responsibilities that they have now I want, too," said Hittle, 18, who will reign over the 4-H Fair, which runs Thursday through Monday at the Hamilton County 4-H Fairgrounds in Noblesville.

The 10-year Hamilton County 4-H'er and the daughter of Joshua and Billie Hittle, she was crowned Miss Hamilton County 4-H Fair Queen on Friday night at the 4-H Fairgrounds in Noblesville. Master of ceremonies was Adam Good, and the

The Origin of Cicero's 'Lead Mine'

PAULA DUNN
From Time to Thyme

While working on last week's column, I ran across so many interesting stories about Cicero's "lead mine" (see the last three paragraphs.) a follow-up column begged to be written.

The first people to discover lead ore in this area were Native Americans. (One source mentioned the Miamis specifically, but I couldn't verify that.) Until I did a little research, I didn't realize how important lead was to Native Americans. They used it for ornaments, jewelry, paints and cosmetics. It was also a valuable trade item, even before the arrival of the Europeans and their firearms.

Because the Indians prized lead so highly, they kept the location of their source a closely guarded secret. However, one of Cicero's early settlers, a man named Bill Jones, became friendly enough with them to be taken into their confidence.

Jones also refused to divulge the lead's location. He simply

William Joseph 'Bill' Smith

October 16, 1930 - July 4, 2022

William Joseph 'Bill' Smith, age 91, of Sheridan, passed away surrounded by his loving family and caregivers on Monday afternoon, July 4, 2022, at Wellbrooke of Westfield.

He was born on October 16, 1930 in Greentown, Indiana, son of the late William Oliver and Fern Leota (Garrett) Smith.

Mr. Smith was a 1949 graduate of Greentown High School and later International Business College in Ft. Wayne. Putting his education to work, he hired on with Biddle Manufacturing in Sheridan, Indiana, retiring after 40 years of dedicated service as an account and human resources manager.

He was a 65-year member of the Sheridan First United Methodist Church, where he was a faithful attendant of the Challengers Sunday School Class. Mr. Smith was also a 50-year member and Past Exalted Leader of the Tipton Elks Club.

Though he had many interests, sports and food were always near the top of the list. He enjoyed watching Colts and Pacers games, but when it came to Purdue basketball, things got a little more serious. Game time was also an excellent opportunity for snacking. Mr. Smith was both a chocolate connoisseur, and an extremely accomplished (self-taught) ice cream eater. Practice makes perfect, especially when it comes to ice cream consumption... so he made sure he had a bowl every night.

Mr. Smith enjoyed spending time at home, doing yard work and picking up sticks around his property, but he did venture out from time to time. He enjoyed searching for Greentown Glass and new (old) coins to add to his growing collection. However, his most memorable excursion was his visit to Israel; he felt proud and truly blessed to be able to make the trip. Mr. Smith was also an avid reader. He always enjoyed a good book, but comic strips were a close second. His go-to was always Peanuts, with Snoopy being his favorite character of the gang.

There was nothing more important in his life than his family. Mr. Smith loved following his grandchildren's activities and sports. His inside jokes, especially wrapping gifts with the funnypages, will be missed by everyone who had the pleasure of receiving one.

Survivors include two sons Leslie J. Smith and Craig G. Smith, both of Sheridan; four daughters Melody L. Smith of Sheridan, Brenda L. Smith of Carmel, Cindy (Greg) Gay Binder of Carmel and Valerie (Jim) D. Kyle of Lebanon; 10 grandchildren Kyle Binder, Brittany Binder, Ashley Binder, Stacy Binder, Kandise (Jacob) Kyle-Ross, Austin (Maddie) Kyle, Brett Kyle, Connor (Brittney) Kyle, Chris Mourey and Holden Henderson; four great grandchildren Eli Ross, Kennedy Ross, Maverie Mason Kyle and Lucas Mani; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, William Oliver and Fern Leota (Garrett) Smith; nine brothers and sisters; and by his loving wife, Norma Lee (Owens) Smith on March 8, 2011. The couple were married on December 31, 1950.

Services are scheduled to be held at 1 p.m. on Friday, July 8, 2022, at the Sheridan First United Methodist Church, 207 E. 2nd Street, Sheridan, Indiana, with Visitation scheduled to run from 11 a.m. until the time of service. Burial will follow at Kempton Cemetery in Kempton, Indiana. Mr. Smith's son-in-law, Pastor Jim Kyle will be officiating.

Former HSPA Director Gives His Appreciation to Local State Senator

EDITOR'S NOTE: Steve Key is the retired executive director and general counsel for the Hoosier State Press Association. Each year, Mr. Key writes legislators and thanks them for the work they did this year on behalf of both the general public and the newspaper industry. This is one of the letters that went to a Hamilton County lawmaker.

Dear Sen. Baldwin:

On behalf of the Hoosier State Press Association, I'd like to thank you for your support of H.B. 1130 during the 2022 Indiana General Assembly. This is the legislation that gives the public the right to comment at public school board meetings.

It was introduced by Rep. Tim O'Brien, R-Evansville. The House initially had two other bills introduced on the right to speak at public meetings - H.B. 1080, authored by Rep. David Abbott, R-Rome City, or H.B. 1290, authored by Rep. Ryan Lauer, R-Columbus. Rep. O'Brien said there was a decision among House Republicans to move his bill, rather than the other two options.

O'Brien's bill was approved by the House Government and Regulatory Reform Committee, chaired by Rep. Doug Miller, R-Elkhart, with an 11-0 vote. The House then passed H.B. 1130 with a 93-0. Co-authors for H.B. 1130 were Reps. Jake Teshka, R-South Bend; Steve Bartels, R-Eckerty; and Michelle Davis, R-Whiteland.

HSPA testified on the bill during its Senate Education and Career Development Committee hearing, chaired by Sen. Jeff Raatz, R-Richmond. HSPA pointed out the bill did not include charter schools. HSPA also pointed out that the language didn't tie the right to comment to specific agenda items, which would open the door for a school board to hold comments until the end of a meeting after final action had been taken.

The Senate Committee did approve the bill, but it added a three-minute limit per person on public comment. The committee vote was 10-1. Sen. Jim Buck, R-Kokomo, was the bill's sponsor. The co-sponsors were Sens. Vaneta Becker, R-Evansville; Mark Messmer, R-Jasper; Erin Houchin, R-Salem; and John Crane, R-Avon.

A second reading amendment by Sen. Buck was approved that eliminated the three-minute limit. The Senate then passed the bill, 34-11, with your "aye" vote.

O'Brien concurred and the House approved that motion, 91-1.

HSPA also appreciates your support of S.B. 83, which was passed after H.B. 1130 and added a couple of legislative improvements in our view. The final version added charter and virtual school boards to the provision allowing public comment. It also added language to provide that the public had the right to speak on an agenda item prior to any final action taken on that item. Both changes reflected testimony by HSPA when the Senate Education and Career Development Committee held its hearing on H.B. 1130.

S.B. 83 was authored by Sen. Jean Leising,

R-Oldenburg. The bill was filed with a drafting error, making code citation references to the Access to Public Records Act, rather than the Open Door Law. HSPA brought the error to Sen. Leising's attention and she fixed the error with an amendment during the bill's hearing before the Senate Education and Career Development Committee hearing, chaired by Sen. Jeff Raatz, R-Richmond.

Rather than testify on the technical correction, HSPA's testimony turned into an explanation of an amendment offered by Sen. Linda Rogers, R-Granger, that involved three separate sections of the Open Door Law. While Sen. Rogers' amendment died with a tie vote, the bill was passed, 8-4. The committee discussion led to a 2nd reading amendment that HSPA supported clarifying that executive sessions would not be subject to public comment. S.B. 83 was passed by the Senate, 45-4, with your "aye" vote. The co-authors were Sens. Veneta Becker, R-Evansville; and Kyle Walker, R-Indianapolis.

HSPA testified for the bill during its hearing before the House Education Committee, chaired by Rep. Bob Behning, R-Indianapolis, who also was the bill's sponsor. HSPA did suggest a change to allow public comments be tied to specific agenda items to avoid a school board putting public comments at the end of a meeting after final actions had been taken. The bill was held a week for an amendment to be prepared to improve the bill.

Rep. Behning said he was working with Rep.

Vernon Smith, D-Gary, on the amendment. Rep. Smith gave Legislative Services Agency permission to share the draft with HSPA. HSPA suggested a change so that citizens would not be limited to only three minutes to speak during a school board meeting. The committee pared the bill down to allowing public comment in public school board meetings with no time limits. This version passed 10-0.

On the House floor, Rep. Ed Delaney, D-Indianapolis, successfully amended the bill to add charter and virtual school board to the public comment right. The bill was then passed by the House, 94-0. The House co-sponsors were Rep. Tim O'Brien, R-Evansville; and J.D. Prescott, R-Union City.

Sen. Leising did file a dissent, but the conference committee report primarily aligned the bill with previously passed H.B. 1130. The conference committee report was approved by the Senate, 39-11 with your positive vote, and the House, 93-0.

On a personal note, the 2022 Indiana General Assembly marked the 30th session that I worked for HSPA and my last as executive director and general counsel. It's been a privilege for me to work with the state's legislators and I fully appreciate the hard work that the legislature performs.

As my role and life changes, I want to wish you all the best in your future.

Respectfully,
Stephen Key
HSPA, Executive Director and General Counsel

Third Volume of Parents' Bill of Rights Available

Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita recently released the third volume of the Parents' Bill of Rights — this time focusing on school choice, the liberty of parents to choose where their children attend school.

"It is a parent's sacred duty to raise their children according to their values. Above all others, parents are the ones best suited to make decisions on their children's behalf, including the schools they attend," Rokita said. "I will always fight for parents' fundamental and constitutional rights to direct the upbringing and education of their children."

Among other things, the latest installment of the Parents' Bill of Rights outlines laws and processes enabling parents to:

- enroll students in private schools through Indiana's school choice programs;
- transfer students from one public school to another; or
- homeschool

Indiana has one of the most robust school choice programs in the country, with over 35,000 students receiving Choice Scholarships in 2021.

"In addition to making sure parents are well-informed of their rights," Rokita said, "I will continue advocating for legislation that puts the needs and interests of parents and students ahead of other entrenched forces such as teachers' unions."

Last session, the Indiana General Assembly passed into law two proposals supported by Rokita — one requiring public comment be allowed at school board meetings and another protecting biological females participating in girls' sports.

The Parents' Bill of Rights continues to highlight for parents and taxpayers areas in which they may find gaps and omissions in state law. Future legislative priorities could include measures 1) requiring schools to make curriculum available for parents to view and 2) prohibiting curriculum that teaches the concept that people should be treated differently solely because of their race, religion, sex, or other characteristics.

Rokita released the first volume of his Parents' Bill of Rights in June 2021. That installment focused on school governance, curriculum adoption, standards adoption, and civil rights complaints.

The second volume, released in November 2021, detailed parents' rights regarding medical decisions for their children, such as access to student health records, vaccination requirements, and educational accommodations.

A fourth installment is also in the works. It will cover religious liberty in schools, making clear that students have a right to practice their faith inside the schoolhouse gates.

IN THE HAMILTON SUPERIOR COURT
ROOM NO. 2
CAUSE NO. 29D02-2207-AD-978

STATE OF INDIANA)
) SS: COUNTY OF HAMILTON)
IN THE MATTER OF THE ADOPTION OF NATHAN REVILLA MCNEELY,
a minor child

NOTICE OF ADOPTION
(Grandparent)

Notice is hereby given to Joycelyn Revilla (spelling uncertain) that a petition for adoption has been filed in the Hamilton Superior Court, Room No. 2, regarding Nathan Revilla McNeely (the "Child") by the spouse of the biological mother of the Child. This notice is required by Indiana Code ("IC") 31-19-2.5-3(a)(3). You are receiving this notice because you may be a grandparent of the Child. As a grandparent, you may have the right to file a petition in court to establish or protect grandparent visitation rights. However, IC 31-17-5-3(b) provides that such a petition must be filed prior to the date a decree of adoption is entered. It is for that reason that you are receiving this notice.

In order to protect any rights of grandparent visitation, which you may have, you should contact your own attorney without delay. Failure to act on your part could cause you to lose your right of grandparent visitation, if such a right exists.

This notice applies to you even if the parent(s) of the Child have voluntarily allowed you to visit. Only court ordered visitation is protected, if at all.

Pursuant to IC 31-19-4.5-1.5, a notice required under IC 31-19-2.5-3 (a)(3) is limited to the issue of visitation and may not be used to contest the adoption. This notice complies with the Indiana Code but does not exhaustively set forth a person's legal obligations under the Indiana adoption statutes. A person being served with this notice should consult the Indiana adoption statutes and their own legal counsel.

Appeals Court Hands Pro-Life Side Another Victory

The 7th Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals on Monday vacated judgments invalidating several Indiana laws protecting unborn children and the health of their mothers — handing the Office of the Attorney General and all Hoosiers yet another victory in the fight for life.

The decision involved the ongoing case Whole Woman's Health Alliance v. Rokita — a legal battle that began with a lawsuit against the state back in 2018.

"Our team has fought long and hard in this case as part of our larger effort to build a culture of life in Indiana," Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita said. "With the U.S. Supreme Court's decision in the Dobbs case, it is clear that life is winning. But we will stay relentless in doing the right thing for unborn babies and their mothers' well-being."

The lawsuit filed in the Whole Woman's Health

case amounted to a full-scale assault on Indiana's slate of abortion laws. Although Attorney General Rokita's team already had prevailed in defending most of those laws, a handful of injunctions remained.

Among other things, laws affected by Monday's ruling include minimum facilities requirements for surgical and chemical abortion clinics as well as requirements that medical personnel advise women that human physical life begins at fertilization and that "objective scientific information shows that a fetus can feel pain at or before twenty (20) weeks of postfertilization age."

Rokita's office had previously secured a stay of injunctions barring enforcement of requirements that only physicians may provide medication abortions; that second-trimester abortions may only be performed in hospitals or ambulatory surgical centers; that women considering abortions receive in-person counseling; and that women considering abortions receive in-person examinations. The judgments against these laws have now been formally vacated as well.

Last week, Rokita announced another historic pro-life legal win after a federal district court granted his motion to lift an injunction on dismemberment abortions, which occur well after an unborn baby is fully developed.

collected the ore himself as the need arose.

On one occasion, Jones was at a maple sugar camp with a group of men who had a yen for some fresh venison, but were short on bullets. Jones volunteered to fetch all the lead they needed IF they promised not to follow him.

The men agreed and Jones left. A short time later, he returned with a load of lead ore "which was quickly smelted and moulded into bullets."

Jones also supplied his neighbors with lead. Despite the neighbors' repeated attempts to track him to his source, the wily Jones always eluded them.

Jones wasn't the only person who discovered lead in this area, though.

At another sugar camp, some people who'd placed a couple of rocks in their fire to hold up the wood they were burning were surprised to see the rocks melt under the fire's intense heat.

Sometime in the late 1850s, a stranger arrived in Cicero and tried to convince the richest man in town, Harrison Pickerill, to enter into a partnership with him. The deal was, Pickerill would buy a parcel of land the stranger claimed contained a lead mine and the two men would split the profits.

Pickerill turned the man down.

After the proposal was rejected, someone followed the stranger "up into the hollows, west of the creek and west of the graveyard," but lost the trail after that.

The stranger was last seen carrying something tied up in a handkerchief as he hopped on a train and left town.

Around 1890, a local man encountered an old lead miner in Missouri. Upon learning his new acquaintance was from Hamilton County, the miner asked if Cicero's lead mine had ever been "worked."

The miner then revealed he'd been to Cicero about 50 years earlier and claimed he knew of a rich vein of lead that existed somewhere near there. He said the mine's mouth was concealed by a big log, and added that, if the mine was ever located, a pick and a shovel would be found nearby.

The old man spoke of intending to return to Cicero to work the mine, but he died the following winter and took the lead's location with him.

In the last years of the 19th century, lead ore was discovered on farms near Cicero and Perkinsville, and it was rumored Indians had had a source near Fishersburg, but I found no evidence of mines being dug at any of these locations.

In fact, back in 1883, Cicero resident and former state representative James R. Carson wrote to the Republican-Ledger insisting that any lead in this area could only have come from small surface deposits.

He pointed out that Bill Jones had died poor in Illinois, a circumstance that wouldn't have happened had there been enough lead ore here for a profitable mining operation.

pageant theme was "Once Upon A Time."

What best prepared Hittle for winning the pageant?

"I looked at past videos. I was in the pageant last year, as well. So I got a lot of experience. And then I went to dress rehearsals and listened carefully because I knew it would be very important," said the winning contestant, who competed in 2021 but did not place in the Court.

So what did she do differently this year? "I didn't do anything different besides having more experience in interviews as well as being more confident in myself ... I've learned not to say 'um' when I talk, and I've also learned how to be able to speak clearly," said the No. 15 among 21 contestants.

What stood out most to the judges this time around? "My ability to speak well in front of people. Because I've done a lot of interviews. I've done the Distinguished Young Woman, for which I interviewed before. I've been class president, so I have a lot of adult-kid experience."

What's she looking forward to most as Fair Queen? "Of course, handling out all of the ribbons," she said. "But letting younger people look up to me because I want to be a good role model for them and show them that they have their full potential."

What does she hope that young 4-H'ers will learn from her?

"I want them to learn good communication skills, responsibility, and I want to be able to educate them that they can be whoever they want to be." The 5-foot-6-inch tall, has green eyes and blond hair.

She has completed 164 projects in 4-H, Baked Food Preparation in the Foods project being her favorite. She has also enjoyed 4-H Camp counseling.

What makes her smile? "My family."

During the pageant, each contestant was asked a question to answer in front of the audience.

The question posed to Hittle? "What are qualities Miss Hamilton County 4-H should possess?"

Her reply: "Miss Hamilton County 4-H should possess leadership skills with her community, responsibility with her fellow peers and good communication skills with younger members." A 2022 graduate of Hamilton Heights High School, she was a member of National Honor Society, varsity softball, varsity cheerleading, FFA, Student Government, Spanish Club, Bring Change to Mind Club and Key Club. Her awards include an Agriculture Department award, Top 10 percent of her class and competing at nationals three times for British Pediatric Association (BPA) medical coding.

She will be a freshman this fall at Manchester University. Her future plans include playing softball at Manchester while studying pre-med to become a pediatric orthopedic surgeon with a minor in Spanish.

Hearing Loss Makes Your BRAIN WORK HARDER

Beltone Hearing Care Practitioner

If you're struggling to hear, you don't just miss a few sounds here or there. New research shows that adults with hearing loss experience a 40% faster decline in cognitive abilities. This suggests that the entire brain may be struggling to fill in the gaps caused by untreated hearing loss.

Beltone Hearing Care Practitioners point to new research. "Several studies have done imaging to look at the brains of people with varying degrees of hearing loss," Beltone says.

With normal hearing, the section of the brain that's responsible for hearing lights up during imaging. But the scans reveal a different picture for a person with untreated hearing loss. Researchers found that the hearing center of the brain shrinks in age-related hearing loss. Therefore, other areas of the brain necessary for memory and thinking must take over to help compensate. That's why people with hearing loss are more fatigued at the end of the day. Your brain is having to work harder if you have untreated hearing loss.

"We want to keep you as healthy as we possibly can. And with hearing aids, you're not only taking care of your hearing and your relationships, but we have the potential, because of the auditory stimulation, to provide benefit for your brain health."

The symptoms may be obvious when you're struggling to hear your grandchild or trying hard to follow a conversation in a crowded place, but many people do not realize that even when you're home alone or in a quiet environment, your brain is still having to work harder than it should to compensate for your hearing loss.

Thankfully, research is showing that when hearing loss is detected early and treated with hearing aids, the brain can reorganize itself back to its usual operation. This research may help explain the link between hearing loss, cognitive decline and memory loss.

Beltone Hearing Care Practitioners say "We want to keep you as healthy as we possibly can. With hearing aids, you're not only taking care of your hearing and your relationships, but we have the potential, because of the auditory stimulation, to provide benefit for your brain health. Hearing loss is not just about your ears. A lot of people tell us that they 'get by just fine', but we remind them that they need to think beyond communication and instead think in terms of overall health."

Complimentary Services:

BUILD A RELATIONSHIP with a Hearing Care Specialist you can trust

If you've had a hearing exam before, you can expect a very different experience when you walk into Beltone. The Specialists readily admit that their goal is to help treat hearing loss, not to sell you a hearing aid.

"Often people walk in and their guard is up," say Beltone. "We get it. They say, 'I don't want to be sold to'. I say, 'Great! You're in a great spot!' We're health professionals, working in your best interest."

While many folks shop for the lowest price for hearing aids, it is highly recommended to shop for the best healthcare professional that you feel comfortable with to ensure your satisfaction and success.

"Think of your hearing in terms of the whole package. If you needed knee surgery, would you shop for the cheapest implant or the most qualified and experienced surgeon to provide the best product, outcome and follow-up care?"

You will be satisfied not when you pay the lowest price but when you get the best overall value for your investment, which is why at Beltone we are professional hearing care specialists that offer the most advanced hearing technology and service.

We pull from over 80 years of hearing healthcare experience and expertise to truly customize options to each individual budget and lifestyle.

Instead of focusing solely on price, We suggest you meet with a hearing care specialist who can not only determine if you have hearing loss and suggest a course of treatment, but work with you every step of the way to improve your quality of life.

"We come at hearing in terms of overall health. We want to build a relationship with you throughout your life. We understand the emotional and financial investment involved, which is why our goal is to keep you hearing your best for as long as we possibly can," Beltone says.

Beltone will provide an honest and clear path for your hearing loss. At Beltone we stand behind everything we do. If you're unhappy with the devices, we don't want you to leave them in the drawer. We set people up for success so they have a positive experience. We know it's an investment, and that's why we're going to take care of you.

TIME TO TAKE YOUR HEARING HEALTH SERIOUSLY

Hearing may be the most underappreciated of the five senses. If you can't see well, of course, you'll visit a licensed eye doctor to get glasses or contacts to correct your vision. But, in this day and age, people are still hesitant to see a hearing care specialist, professionals that are highly trained to treat hearing loss.

"The reasons are endless," says Beltone. "Many of us don't think we're old enough to need hearing aids, or we worry they'll make us look older. Some of us don't think our hearing loss is bad enough to need help, or we're worried about the cost."

The fact is that even a mild hearing loss may be affecting your brain function, your sense of balance and your relationships with family and friends.

"Hearing loss is hard on relationships."

You may think the simple solution is to just turn the TV louder or ask your kids or grandkids to speak up, but even a mild hearing loss can affect you in countless ways. If your hearing is at all impaired, your brain has to work harder, trying to make out words and sounds. A hearing loss can make it harder to interact in social situations, to spend time with family, or to be productive at work. Research has linked untreated hearing loss with cognitive decline, dementia and an increased risk of falls.

THE SOLUTION: Resolve to schedule a free hearing exam. It's quick, easy, and will provide you with the information you need to move forward in life.
