Philippians 4:6-7 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

➔ FACES OF HAMILTON COUNTY
People who call our community their own.

What makes Quinn Bates smile? "A lot of stuff. Cats," said the 11-year-old Noblesville resident, a sixth-grade homeschooler. She was dressed as a witch and was found playing games at the annual Hamilton County 4-H Junior Leaders Halloween Party this month at the 4-H Fairgrounds in Noblesville. Most fun about the party? Getting "the candy," and playing the games. She was found with her brother, Levi, 8, dressed as Link from the action-adventure game, "Legend of Zelda: Breath of the Wild." Their parents are Richard and Stephanie Bates. Favorite school subject? "Social Studies." Favorite food? "Ramen." Pastimes? "Dance." She said, "I do ballet and contemporary (dance)." What else? "I usually just play video games ... and I like doing art." Plans when she grows up? "I want to work at an animal shelter." Find more Halloween activities in upcoming editions of The Times.

1. Fishers City Budget

The Fishers Common Council held its final reading and vote for the 2023 City Budget, resulting in a unanimous vote in favor of the proposed budget. Mayor Fadness presented the budget, proposing a property tax decrease, investments in infrastructure and quality of life amenities while maintaining healthy cash reserves.

Members of the city council and the public were briefed on the proposed budget during the August, September and October Finance Committee meetings, including an additional special Finance Committee meeting in September.

The Fishers Common Council also voted to enact a one-percent Food and Beverage Tax with an 8-1 vote with Councilwoman Jocelyn Vare voting against the measure. The tax will go into effect on Dec. 1. Revenue generated from the tax will go directly toward the debt service payments for the Fishers event center. This recently announced mid-sized event center will be home to the ECHL Indy Fuel and anchor of Thompson Thrift's expansion of Fishers District.

The City's fiscal year ends on Dec. 31. Details of the 2023 City Budget can be found at fishers.in.us/Budget.

Dick and Margaret Gordon of Noblesville are thrilled about the Bridge of Flowers that the Gordon family led the way to bring to fruition on the Logan Street Pedestrian Bridge in downtown Noblesville.

Gordon Family Cuts Ribbon on City's Bridge of Flowers

BETSY REASON
The Times Editor

Noblesville's Dick Gordon smiled as he looked around at the beautiful new Bridge of Flowers on the Logan Street Pedestrian Bridge overlooking the White River in downtown Noblesville.

Gordon dreamed big, and now his vision has come to fruition. "It's something that I thought was going to be great, but it's greater than I expected," said Gordon, 87, who headed up the Bridge of Flowers project, the vision of the Gordon family. "The quality of the donor board, the quality of the flower containers, everything is first class. I'm impressed."

He posed for photos with family members following a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Thursday afternoon at the Bridge of Flowers, where the Gordon family and Gordon Marketing employees gathered along with Hamilton County Commissioners, Noblesville Mayor Chris Jensen, City employees and the community.
