TODAY'S VERSE

1 Corinthians 15:57-58 "But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain." (NIV)

FACES OF HAMILTON COUNTY

People who call our community their own.

What makes Ron Wilson smile?
"When I get phone calls from widows that I've helped get VA benefits, and my grandkids," said Wilson, 77, Noblesville. Wilson is a 1964 Noblesville High School veteran of the U.S. Navy and served in Vietnam from 1965-71 and is a member of the American Legion Post 45 in Noblesville. The retired insurance man and substitute teacher is past State Commander of Indiana Squadron and is currently Senior Executive Officer of the National Staff of Navy Club USA and, as a past Commander of Hamilton County Navy Club Ship 29, Wilson now serves as a Trustee. Formerly, he loved to scuba down in Florida and in the Midwest when he wasn't working with veterans. That was until he had a stroke on Valentine's Day in 2014. Now, he said, "After I had my stroke, I had to give up scuba diving. Spending my time now in community service." He and his wife, Sharon, have been "hitched" for 54 years and they have four kids and six grandkids. He also has enjoyed devoting time to youth, as scout leader and youth football and baseball coach. He is president of Hamilton County Veterans and is heading up this year's veterans' coat drive, today through Sunday, with Life Church in Noblesville, 2200 Sheridan Road, where he asks the community to drop off coats for men, women and children during the hours of 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. today through Friday, and 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sunday.

And Another Thing...

1. Gateway Food

The Hoosier Sugar Cream Pie has been named and shamed as a 'gateway food to obesity' according to research by DrugGenius.com, a provider of reliable, evidence-based information about prescription medications.

The website surveyed 3,003 respondents and found that almost 1 in 5 (16%) Hoosiers admit that eating just one sweet treat, such as the local Hoosier Sugar Cream Pie, acts as a trigger which leads them onto a spell of unhealthy eating. This sweet treat is a creamy custard pie, flavored with vanilla and cinnamon, and has signaled the end of many locals healthy eating regime.

'Play That Goes Wrong' is Really Right at Attic

BETSY REASON
The Times Editor

If you've ever been involved with a theatrical production or just love community theater, you will find this play a hoot. "I think audiences will find humor in the fact that the mistakes in this show are all something that many people have possibly seen in theater. But in this show, they're purposeful," said Millie Lawrence, co-director with husband, Seth Lawrence, of The Attic Theatre's next production, "The Play That Goes Wrong." The show opens Thursday and continues through Saturday at The Ivy Tech Auditorium in Noblesville.

The play is a classic murder-mystery full of mishaps on opening night of "The Murder at Haversham Manor," with an unconscious leading lady, a corpse that plays dead and actors who trip over everything, including their lines.

"Some set pieces will fall, actors will forget their lines, sounds go off at the wrong times. The audience will see

The 2022-2023 Winter Weather Forecast

PAULA DUNN
From Time to Thyme

I can't believe it's time to do the winter weather forecast column again. Where did the summer go?

As always, I need to point out that I'm not in the business of making predictions myself. I just gather data from the folk signs Sheridan's weather expert, Clara Hoover, used to create her winter weather forecasts.

I'll let you form your own predictions.

The first folk sign to heed is the number of fogs in August. Those are supposed to equal the number of big snows we'll have.

I'm not sure how to count the fogs this year. The WISH-TV fog map showed fog in different small sections of the county on August 5, 6, 14 and 15, but the only day the entire county was covered was August 22.

So, do we count five fogs, or one? (This is why I don't do

OBITUARIES

Esther Fay Beard

June 18, 1929-October 11, 2022

Esther Fay Beard, age 93, of rural Atlanta, Indiana passed away Oct. 11, 2022 at Miller's Merry Manor at Tipton, Indiana.

She was born June 18, 1929 near Arcadia, Indiana to Avery and Mary (Belzer) Bowman.

Mrs. Beard attended Walnut Grove School Elementary and Junior High School and graduated in 1947 from Walnut Grove High School.

Esther Fay, as she was fondly known, married Ralph Eugene Beard on Jan. 13, 1951 and they began their lives together in a farm home north of Arcadia. She enjoyed her new role as homemaker and also worked in the Cafeteria at Walnut Grove School.

Mrs. Beard was an active member of the Arcadia Church of the Brethren. When the new Brethren Church was built, the old church was torn down. She gathered wood from the demolition, and being a gifted wood carver, she made Christmas ornaments from the wood and gave them to family, friends and church members. She was an excellent seamstress and made clothing for her family. She also made a quilt for each grandchild (seven of them) and gave a handmade quilt to each one when they graduated from high school. In her leisure time, Mrs. Beard enjoyed reading, crocheting, taking care of her pets and just being outdoors.

Survivors include her daughter Karen Fay Chase of Windfall, Ind.; sons Charles Avery Beard of Arcadia and Steven Eugene Beard of Atlanta; seven grandchildren Cristy, Sara, Amber, Stephanie, Candace, Amanda, and Anna; and eight great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, parents and sister Leona Zetterberg.

Funeral services are scheduled to be held Monday, Oct. 17, 2022 at 2 p.m. at Hartley Funeral Home Cicero Chapel, 209 West Jackson Street, Cicero with Pastor Mark Knapp officiating. Burial will follow at the Cicero Cemetery. Visitation is scheduled to run from 12 p.m. until time of the services.

Memorial contributions may be made to your local Humane Societies.

John Leslie Bolen

July 7, 1932-October 2, 2022

John Leslie Bolen, 90, passed away Sunday, Oct. 2, 2022 in Westfield with his loving wife by his side.

He was born at home, in Farmer City, Ill., on July 7, 1932, the son of Leslie and Inez Bolin (White).

Mr. Bolen graduated from Moore High School in Farmer City. He worked at Morgan Shell Station, within walking distance from his family home. He also clerked at Lou Gottlieb clothing store in Farmer City before enlisting in the Navy where he served 4 years as a navigator on a sea plane. This experience instilled his love of flying. While owning a gas station in Corpus Christi, Texas, Mr. Bolen took flight school night classes. He gave up his childhood dream of being a cowboy, and at age 30, became the youngest pilot ever to be hired at Eastern Airlines. Captain Bolen flew the Boeing 727 and the Lockheed 1011 aircrafts, one of which he piloted for the Stephen King television mini-series, "The Langoliers."

He married the love of his life, Karen Molnar, on Oct. 31, 1990, in Reno, Nev. Together, they lived life to the fullest as they traveled the world with Air Lanka; Mr. Bolen as pilot and Karen as his social director.

Cars were also a passion of John. He and Karen drove extensively, visiting friends and family throughout the US. A favorite trip was driving Route 66 across the country. In his retirement, he enjoyed selling cars.

Survivors include his wife Karen; two daughters Cheryl Kay (Charmagne) Pfoff and Judy O'Kelley; two brothers Gerald (Betty) White and Paul (Ellen) Bolin; three brothers-in-law Joe Machnik, Joseph Dominczyk, Jr. and Fred Wrather; two grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother Richard Bolin; and two sisters Divona Wrather and Charlotte Castor.

Heartfelt thanks to Mr. Bolen's caregivers and special family friends, Don and Judy Ackerson.

He was known for his positive attitude and his passion for life. This was an inspiration for everyone who knew him. He loved to tell stories of his flying experiences and often reflected on his life... "A life well lived."

Bussell Family Funerals is privileged to serve the Bolin family.

Robert (Bobby) John Spear

March 17, 1958-October 5, 2022

Robert John Spear, 64, of Westfield, passed away on Wednesday, Oct. 5, 2022.

He was born March 17, 1958 in Tacoma, Wash., son of Robert and Elaine (Beck) Brecka.

Mr. Spear lived most of his life in East Chicago, Ind. Following his mother's death, he was cared for in a group home located in North Vernon until health issues required skilled nursing services at Maple Park Village in Westfield.

Mr. Spear was a very special guy who loved his family and they were blessed to share many happy memories with him through the years. He will be sadly missed by his family and caregivers.

Private arrangements will be made at a later date. Bussell Family Funerals is privileged to serve the Spear family.

She was born on Sept. 16, 1932 to John and Bertha Guthrie in Mitchell, Indiana.

Mrs. King was a member of Westfield First United Methodist Church. She loved to water ski, play cards, square dance and fly with her husband. Mary Caroline Luprich

May 29, 1947-October 2, 2022

Mary Caroline Luprich, age 75, of Westfield, Indiana, passed away on Sunday morning, Oct. 2, 2022, at Copper Trace of Westfield.

She was born on May 29, 1947, in Chicago, Illinois, the daughter of the late Casimir Joseph and Lottie (Ocwieja) Kusz.

Mrs. Luprich was a 1965 graduate of Madonna High School in Chicago, Illinois.

She was a woman of strong faith. She attended St. Hubert Catholic Church in Hoffman Estates, Illinois for many years.

She was a people person, a trait that would serve her very well throughout her career. Starting out as a cashier with the National Tea Company, Mrs. Luprich quickly fell in love with her job. Interacting with the many customers that frequented her store throughout the years was truly a blessing. She would later become a licensed real estate agent, working for Liberman Real Estate Company in Schaumburg, Illinois.

If anyone appreciated a sale, it was Mrs. Luprich. She was a bargain shopper extraordinaire, and the Queen of the garage sales. She was always on the lookout for toys, hoping to find just the right addition to her collection. She loved celebrating all the holidays, but there were a few that held a special place in her world - Thanksgiving and Black Friday. Black Friday was her Super Bowl, and Thanksgiving was her pre-game tailgate party, (only with turkey, the customary trimmings, and a stack of sale ads from which to formulate her plan of attack with military precision). Mrs. Luprich was also an avid reader, never passing up an opportunity to lose herself in the pages of a good book.

Family was a very important part of her life. No matter what the occasion, her family always came first - without exception.

Survivors include her two daughters Michelle Luprich of Noblesville and Kristin Luprich of Westfield; three grandchildren Mason Doerr, Madelyn Doerr and Nathan Luprich; three brothers John Kusz (Michaelene) of Park Ridge, Ill., Richard Kusz (Debra) of Wonderlake, Ill. and James Kusz (Diane) of Medford, Ore.; sister Theresa Mazurek (Christopher) of Fox Grove, Ill.; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents Casimir Joseph and Lottie (Ocwieja) Kusz; and her former husband Joseph Luprich.

A Celebration of Life is being planned for Nov. 12, 2022, in Illinois.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Kercheval Funeral Home in Sheridan.

Connie L. Steele

December 22, 1945-October 14, 2022

Connie L. Steele, 76, of Noblesville, passed away on Friday, Oct. 14, 2022 at her home.

She was born on Dec. 22, 1945 to Judson and Mary Davis in Bucyrus, Ohio.

Mrs. Steele worked as a medical technician for 25 years at St. Vincent Hospital. She loved to paint, play BINGO, and do crafts. Most of all, she enjoyed spending time with her family.

Survivors include her four children Ronald "Ron" (Mary) Lawrence Sr., Susan Lawrence, April (Mike) Welch and Angie (Jon) Ward; ten grandchildren Stefan (Doreen) Langley, Ronald (Darshika) Lawrence Jr., Nicholas (Cheyenne) Classick, Sarah Lawrence, Sha-vaun (Leo) Del Rosario, Bradly Lawrence, Kyle Lawrence, Alan Rawls, Jaxon Welch and JJ Ward; and nine great-grandchildren Jaythan Langley, Clarissa Classick, Arya Langley, Jacob Lawrence, Emelia Lawrence, Mackenzie Del Rosario, Liliith Classick, Christopher Sortor and Kailee Sortor.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband Terry Steele.

Visitation is scheduled to be held from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., with services scheduled to begin at 1 p.m., on Thursday, Oct. 20, 2022 at Randall & Roberts Funeral Home, 1150 Logan Street, in Noblesville. Pastor Andrew Marshall will officiate. Burial will be at Crownland Cemetery in Noblesville.

Glendora Ann Walker

September 18, 1934-October 10, 2022

Glendora Ann Walker, age 88, of Lebanon, Indiana, passed away on Monday evening, Oct. 10, 2022, at Homewood Health Campus in Lebanon.

Born Sept. 18, 1934, in Boone County, Indiana, she was the daughter of the late Jesse Ermin and Ethel Irene (Elsey) Poer.

She was a 1952 graduate of Sheridan High School, and a member of the Gadsden Church of Christ.

Family was always first and foremost in Mrs. Walker's life. If the kids or the grandchildren were involved in an activity, so was she, always there supporting them in whatever way she could. Back home on the farm, she was a dedicated farm wife; again, doing whatever needed done to support the people she loved the most. One of Mrs. Walker's favorite chores was keeping the yard in tip top shape. Every year, as winter was winding down, she would get the itch to get out on the rider and officially start mowing season, (the unofficial 5th season, and by far, her favorite). Life on the farm was busy, as was keeping up with a growing family, but she always found time to sit and watch her daily episode(s) of Wheel of Fortune, mostly uninterrupted.

Mrs. Walker also loved to cook, and it was the perfect way of sharing a part of herself with those she loved. She was fortunate enough to find a part-time career that let her share that part of her life with the world, literally. For 30 years, she worked for Donaldson's Finer Chocolates in Lebanon, Indiana, and absolutely loved every single minute. Mrs. Walker did a little bit of everything around the shop, but her favorite job was hand dipping the nuts.

Her strong faith and dedication to her family is the foundation of the legacy that she leaves behind.

Survivors include her two sons Randy J. Walker (Jacque) of Zionsville and Ronald E. Walker (Teresa) of Lebanon; five grandchildren Ben Walker (Lisa), Craig Walker (Eliana), Tracy VanFossan (Matthew), Brad Walker (Heidi) and Kelly Walker; six great-grandchildren Henry Walker, Oliver Walker, Mason VanFossan, Cora VanFossan, Allison Walker and Estelle Walker, plus 1 great grandchild on the way; sister Phyllis McCarty of Sheridan; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents Jesse Ermin and Ethel Irene (Elsey) Poer; sisters Betty Simms, and Vonda Spray; and by the love of her life, Floyd Eugene Walker, on Dec. 16, 1998. The two were married on June 28, 1953, and she and her "favorite pet" would spend the next 45 years creating a lifetime of memories.

Mrs. Walker will be laid to rest at Crown View Cemetery in Sheridan. A private Graveside Service will be held with Pastor Jim Williams officiating.

Memorial contributions may be presented to either the Alzheimer's Association, or to the American Cancer Society.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Kercheval Funeral Home in Sheridan.

Suzi Boyer

February 15, 1947-October 18, 2022

Suzi Boyer, 75, of Noblesville, passed away on Tuesday, Oct. 18, 2022 at her home.

She was born on Feb. 15, 1947 in Noblesville.

Mrs. Boyer was owner/operator of Village Hairdresser and Details Hair Salons. She was a supporter at Christmastime of Riley Hospital for Children.

Survivors include her husband Jeff Boyer; son Joe Burris II; daughter Mandy Clark; step-son Jason (Maggie) Boyer; step-daughter Jessica (Steve) Klabak; sister Teri Ransom; and four grandchildren Aiden Burris, Hunter Koharchick, Parker Boyer and Ellie Boyer.

She was preceded in death by her father Sam Miller; mother Evelyn M. (Smith) Steele; brother Sam Miller; and grandmother Gladys Smith.

Visitation is scheduled to be held from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., with services scheduled to begin at 1 p.m., on Saturday, Oct. 22, 2022 at Randall & Roberts Funeral Home, 1150 Logan Street, in Noblesville. The Rev. Stanley R. Sutton will officiate. Burial will follow at Crownland Cemetery in Noblesville.

Feeding Team - Festival Thank You to Neighbors, Plus Ask us Anything

MARK HALL
Guest columnist

Thank You Neighbors! 1800 people attended the 2022 Feeding Team Festival at Federal Hill Commons. Almost 6,000 meals were donated and over fifteen thousand dollars was raised. It was a beautiful fall day with great bands and vendors. Thank you, bands, sponsors, vendors, and volunteers! The feedback we received was extremely positive. It is rewarding to see neighbors step up and serve alongside FeedingTeam.org volunteers. Hungry neighbors appreciate your contributions.

Ask us Anything:
When I stopped by a pantry, it was almost empty, have you stopped stocking? What's going on?

We regularly receive notes from neighbors reporting a pantry that is low on resources. Occasionally, and it breaks my heart, a neighbor will complain that we aren't doing enough or worse yet, that we have stopped placing food in the pantries. I assure you we continue to load food in the pantries as we have for the last several years.

During 2022 pantry use has exceeded what we can supply. We have no way to control what neighbors take out of a pantry. Our, "Take What You Need Give What You Can" approach, is open to abuse through overuse. We do not have unlimited resources to buy food for the pantries. As a 501C3 not for profit, with no paid employees, we do all that we can within our budget to provide as many meals as possible. We moderate food volume and rotate stocking days in response to abuse and overuse. Unfortunately, we have seen hundreds of meals gone within a day of a pantry being stocked.

Our mission is to provide a few meals to many people. Our locations target GAP families. In today's world we have many neighbors taking dozens of meals, much more than is intended. Personally, when I speak with them, they are hurting and afraid. Embarrassment has been overridden by fear. Often, they can't afford the combination of daily life expenses and lien on the pantries as a primary food source. Volunteers observe these painful circumstances and offer referrals to organizations built to handle these situations. Pantries regularly receive hundreds of meals each month. They are not designed to be a neighbors personal grocery store, but unfortunately that is a regular occurrence presently.

How do the pantries get food in them?

Through the work of volunteers, food is distributed every other Wednesday afternoon at our offices. Volunteers stock, clean and organize their pantries at least once a week and usually twice weekly. Last month 9,000 meals were stocked in pantries. Countless other meals were donated by the public.

How best can I or my group help FeedingTeam.org?

Get involved. Donate at www.feedingteam.org or volunteer by reaching out to charity.rosandich@feedingteam.org. You can drop off some canned goods directly in any pantry or at our offices. We all have items in our home that could help a neighbor. Every time a call goes out for public assistance in stocking a pantry that is low on food, neighbors step up. I've seen it numerous times.

As we head into winter, what items will be in highest demand?

Canned proteins, ramen, soup, vegetables, canned fruit, pouches of baby food, protein bars, powdered drinks and boxed pasta are all higher demand items in the winter. We don't stock glass items through the winter.

With over 27,000 food challenged neighbors in Hamilton County, www.feedingteam.org is a registered 501C3 not for profit organization that provides outdoor 24x7x365 no questions asked free food pantries throughout the county. The pantries exist, to meet the food insecurity needs of GAP families, neighbors that may not qualify for public assistance and could use a few meals before payday. The pantries serve as many food-challenged neighbors as possible, and our hearts are with those that like my family, could not always make ends meet.

Thank you for embracing the pantries. We love serving with so many neighbors across Hamilton County. In future columns we will share more stories about how your generosity served neighbors in times of need. The face of hunger in Hamilton County is not what you may think.

In practical terms this straightforward way to help neighbors is having real impact on lives, families, and our communities. Thank you. A few meals can change the course of a person's life. A can of green beans means so much more when you have nothing to feed your kids. Would you like to get involved? Volunteer opportunities are available. We are evaluating new pantry locations. If you think you have a potential location, please contact us.

www.feedingteam.org facts - 49 pantries, 8,500 meals in July 2022, over thirty volunteer families. Mark & Lisa Hall are the Founders of Feeding Team. They may be reached at lisa@feedingteam.org and mark@feedingteam.org or (317) 832-1123.

State Auditor and Treasurer Races on Tap Nov. 8

By Whitney Downard

Two frequently overlooked statewide elected positions, Treasurer and Auditor, will appear on the November ballot this year, along with the higher-profile races for Congress and Secretary of State.

Both positions are largely administrative roles, with few differences between Republican and Democratic officeholders.

Treasurer Race
Over a dozen states allow their governors to appoint their Treasury leader and two states, New York and Texas, have folded Treasurer duties into comptroller (or auditor) positions. Twenty-six other states will also vote for their Treasurer candidates during this election cycle. Additionally, Utah will have a special election for Treasurer this year after a 2021 resignation.

Current Treasurer Kelly Mitchell is term limited and cannot campaign for a third term. This open seat prompted four Republicans across the state to compete for the nomination, with Morgan County's Daniel Elliot narrowly clinching the win.

The office serves as the state's chief investment officer and banker, serving on multiple boards and commissions.

Jessica McClellan

In particular, the Treasurer chairs the Indiana Education Savings Authority, which administers the state's education savings program that promotes financial planning for higher education. For rural or impoverished counties, the officer manages TrustIndiana, an investment pool, and chairs the Indiana Bond Bank, which assists municipalities with low-cost financing.

Republican nominee Elliot, then a county chairman for the Republican Party, previously made waves for his 2018 push to keep anti-gay language in the GOP platform that defined marriage as a union between a woman and a man.

Opposite Elliot, Monroe County Treasurer Jessica McClellan could be the first openly LGBTQ candidate elected to statewide office. McClellan incorporates ideas for helping unbanked and underbanked Hoosiers with financial services into her platform.

Daniel Elliot

In their words
"I know that kind of stuff may not seem sexy to most but I just love it because you're building your community. You're helping that community grow and giving opportunities," Elliott said.

"There's a whole sector of people that we can help improve their lives," McClellan said. "(With) involvement from the state level to make sure that the word gets out because this is something that's needed."

Auditor Race

Two dozen states elect their state auditors, otherwise known as comptrollers or controllers. Other states' governors nominate someone who must be approved by the legislature or legislatures directly vote for someone to fill the office. Appointed auditors are frequently nonpartisan.

Brooks and Libertarian John Schick.

The office includes five departments: Accounts Payable, Accounting and Reporting, Finance, Local Government and Payroll. The auditor has the responsibility to balance the state's checkbook and pay state employees.

Additionally, the office oversees the state's transparency portal, distributes school tax distributions and administers Indiana's Deferred Compensation Plan, a retirement planning tool.

Both Klutz and Brooks are CPAs, with a background of audits in the public and private sectors, respectively. Schick, who works for an advisory firm that does data and analytics, advocates for reducing the government's rules and regulations.

In their words

"I feel like with that local government experience, it was very vital for me to come in here," Klutz said. "I tell people, the state auditor doesn't audit the financial records of Indiana – we create the reports that get audited."

"It's not a job where we go in and try to catch people doing something wrong," Brooks said.

"I served as an auditor for mostly non-for-profit organizations over the past seven or eight years and it's really coming alongside them as a partner and making sure they're in compliance with their granting or regulations."

"The people in the Senate and in Congress and the governor – who are all making decisions to spend money – all tend to be playing on the same team with the auditor," Schick said. "People should consider that it's probably best not to have the auditor on the same political party."

"This is the first Library of the Year I am awarding since beginning my role as GPO Superintendent of Documents, and I can't imagine a more deserving library," said GPO Superintendent of Documents Scott Matheson.

our actors go through a mess of 'mistakes' and do an excellent job doing it," Millie Lawrence said.

The co-directors have learned a lot about all the pieces it takes to put together a show, she said. "It's not just directing our actors, but there's so much more to understanding the story as a whole, finding props, designing the set, marketing and being in constant communication with our crew."

As far as what they've taught their cast?

"The biggest thing to teach our actors is to read the audience," she said. "Comedic timing entirely depends on what the audience is feeling, and having our actors pause to allow our audience to laugh will encourage more laughter."

Unlike some theaters that prospective directors choose the plays, The Attic Theatre board of directors chose the play. "Seth and I wanted to direct a comedy, so we were thrilled when the board of directors asked us to direct this show," she said.

This play is a first-time experience for many of the show's crew members. It's also the first time that Seth and Millie Lawrence have co-directed. It's the first time for Clayton Cina to be assistant director. It's the first time for Robert Lee to be technical director. It's the first time for Becky Mosier to do costume design.

"We have all had to have a lot of patience with each other as we all figure out how to put on a show," Millie Lawrence said. "We have had a lot of communication, so we all have a common goal, but we are so grateful for our terrific cast of seasoned performers that have natural comedic timing that make our jobs easy."

Millie Lawrence assistant directed The Attic Theatre's "Sense & Sensibility" last season and Seth Lawrence has directing experience since he studied theater at Indiana Wesleyan University in Marion.

The Lawrences -- Millie, who was born and raised in Indianapolis and is an event coordinator, and Seth, who was born and raised in Pittsburgh and is a warehouse assistant manager -- both grew up with theater, with older siblings involved in theater in school. Millie Lawrence loves all things Disney, theater and crafting. Seth Lawrence loves theater, board games and movies.

They joined The Attic Theatre in 2021. Some of the theater's founders attended college with Seth at Indiana Wesleyan, so he was asked to join by some of his friends, "and we've just stuck," Millie Lawrence said.

"We love the atmosphere and positivity this theater encourages," she said. "Everyone is constantly encouraging each other, and we love learning from all ages of the participants of this theater."

signed themed Christmas trees, wreaths, and table centerpieces -- all hand-decorated by local designers as fundraising pieces.

Reservations are available and are required due to limited seating. To RSVP, visit gslive.org/festival-of-trees or call the Good Samaritan Network (317) 842-2603 x200 for more details.

Good Samaritan Network, Founder and Executive Director Nancy Chance said, "In 2021 we thoroughly enjoyed our first year at the Renaissance North with a near-capacity crowd. It also marked our first year back "live" (onsite) since COVID, with over 309 generous bids placed."

Chance went on to say, "2021 was our best year ever with our strongest sponsors and participants, grossing $79,462.57. The "live" auction was incredibly fun and very successful in raising nearly $24,000 alone!"

Purchased trees will be professionally delivered free of charge to the purchaser's residence or address of choice by the following Monday.

The Festival of Trees will include mobile and online bidding. Simply register online and bid by phone or online at any time. No app download is required.

To help offset event cost increases for Festival of Trees 2022, the Good Samaritan Network is making an early registration promo code you can use to save 10% available now.

This county-wide holiday assistance program is made possible, in part, because of in-kind donations received and processed all year long to Good Samaritan Network; which is dependent upon the neighbors and residents of Hamilton County for their donation of gently used or new toys (especially for 8-13 yr. olds) and that are repurposed without cost to the residents of Hamilton County. Gently used bicycles are also welcomed and repurposed for families thru our Recycled Cycles program.

Additional funds are required to handle expenses for the Holiday Assistance program, including perishable and nonperishable food.

Last year's Holiday Assistance Program served over 46,000 people with (1) Thanksgiving Distribution of food boxes, (2) Thanksgiving Day Meals (drive-thru and delivery), (3) Christmas Distribution of food boxes and holiday toys, and with the delivery of 791 holiday meals for shut-ins on (4) Christmas Eve! Our annual Holiday Assistance budget is over $71,000.00.

Speaking about the value of sponsorship, Nancy Chance said, "During the last eight years we've held Festival of Trees we have enjoyed 93 amazing sponsors accumulating over $140,000. They collectively directed assistance to Hamilton County families by supporting GSN's programming and services! That's incredible and that's why sponsor participation is so critical! Sponsorships usually provide nearly forty percent of the total fundraising gross, making a huge investment in our community and showing generosity and concern for our neighbors at the holidays! Thank you, sponsors!"

Sponsorships are available in multiple categories, including: Event Sponsor $8,000, Pinnacle Sponsor $4,000, Pillar Sponsor $2,000, Platform Sponsor $1,000 and Partner $500. Sponsors can easily register online at gslive.org/festival-of-trees.

wind on the equinox indicates the weather in January and February, and the wind the following day is what March and April should be like.

A north wind means cold weather, a northeast wind is heavy snow, and a northwest wind foretells blizzard conditions. A west wind equals cooler weather, an east wind is wet cold and a south wind indicates fair weather. A southwest wind is a sign of fair and cooler weather.

(Clara didn't mention a southeast wind, but if I had to guess at an interpretation, I'd say fair, but cold.)

Because I can never seem to catch all the weather reports on TV on those days, I took my wind data from timeanddate.com. That website displays the local daily weather conditions at midnight, 6 a.m., noon, and 6 p.m.

On September 21, the day before the equinox, the wind came from the southeast, southwest, west-southwest, and then the west. On the equinox, September 22, it was from the north, northwest, north and north. The September 23 wind was north-northeast, northeast, southeast and west-northwest.

It's pretty clear the west wind predominated on September 21 and the north wind on September 22, but I'm going to let you decide about September 23. North? East?

Now, the wooly worms.

Whether it's due to climate change or our skyrocketing population, the little critters seem to be getting scarcer. For a while I was afraid I wasn't going to have a wooly worm report this year, but several people finally came through for me.

Jeanne Flanders saw a wooly worm she described as "carrot red." (I think it probably falls in the "brown" category.) Tim Chenoweth spotted a black worm, Steve Owens found a white one and Bonnie Zarins saw a tiny brown one.

On Clara's chart, brown wooly worms predict fair weather, black ones mean cold weather and the white ones forecast snow.

It's not unusual for there to be no consistency in the color of the wooly worms, but it IS unusual that everybody reported solid colors this year. Normally, most of the wooly worms observed are the banded, two-tone kind.

Finally, we have the persimmon seed report, courtesy of Bonnie Zarins. Bonnie has my utmost admiration for her ability to split persimmon seeds in half. It's NOT easy.

According to Clara, a split persimmon seed that shows a spoon shape means many snows, knives are fair weather and forks are bitter cold.

This wasn't clear, either. My first impression of Bonnie's seed was that it was a spoon -- then it started to look like a knife.

Better keep your snow shovels handy -- just in case.
