➤ FACES OF HAMILTON COUNTY

People who call our community their own.

What makes Denise Tague smile? "Family and friends," said the 65-year-old, a manager at Alexander's On the Square in downtown Noblesville. She's worked at the sandwich, salad and ice-cream shop since 1999. She said Alexander's soups are made from scratch, and her favorites are chili, potato and kielbasa. Her favorite ice cream flavor? "Moose Tracks, a vanilla ice cream with fudge swirled in with peanut-butter cups." Growing up, her grandmother called her "Ice Cream Kid" and always kept vanilla ice cream on hand. She enjoys watching girls high school basketball and women's college Tennessee Lady Vols, for which she has been a fan since 1987, and reconnected with her own high school basketball coach, Sharon Eskew. Born in Noblesville and raised in Carmel, the 1975 Carmel High School graduate played girls basketball at CHS and played three years at Ball State University, where she also ran track for one year. She lives in Noblesville, where she was born at Riverview Hospital, and is a season-ticket holder for Indiana Fever, likes geocaching, and volunteers at the food pantry for White River Christian Church in Noblesville. She became involved in the food pantry through her parents, John and Roberta Tague of Noblesville. Her usual resolutions for the New Year? "Spend more time with loved ones and friends. Make a bucket list. Volunteer more."

County Commissioners Honor Employees for Years of Service

Hamilton County is celebrating 170 employees for their service to the community. Each year the Board of Commissioners and Human Resources Department recognize and honor employees for long and meritorious service by presenting service awards at the end of each five years of employment.

Each recipient will be given a service pin with the number of years on it. Human Resources Director Sheena Randall said, "Our goal is to bring to the citizens and taxpayers of Hamilton County the most responsive governmental services possible. From Time to Thyme

Because I run the annual tribute to the Notable Nineties at New Year's, I've never explored the way New Year's Eve and New Year's Day used to be observed in this county.

This year I decided to be different. With both Noblesville and Hamilton County celebrating a bicentennial in 2023, it seemed an appropriate time to look into how county residents moved from one year to the next, even if the current holiday is past us.

Two hundred years is a lot of newspapers to cover, though, so I focused on just one year — 1923.

One hundred years ago, the Jan. 1, 1923 Noblesville Daily Ledger's account of the holiday celebration began: "The creeking [sic] wheels of Father Time's dilapidated chariot bear-

Mr. Brown married Evelyn Mae Odom on Aug. 7, 1969.

He was a firm believer in hard work, which made it important to him to set goals for himself. After getting started in the car business, owning a dealership became a major goal for him to achieve. That goal came true in the early 2000's as he became owner of Dan Young GM, a dealership that he had been working at since the early 1990's. Mr. Brown was very involved with holiday philanthropy, participating with the Kokomo We Care and Tipton We Share programs.

When he was not at the dealership, he enjoyed boating and activities on the lake. Many memories were made during the trips to Dale Hollow for family vacations. Mr. Brown loved to bowl and enjoyed the yearly Elks National Bowling weekend. He was a member of the Tipton Elks Lodge and the Moose in Tipton, and was a former member of the Tipton Rotary Club.

David Gordon Givens

July 12, 1942-December 31, 2022

David Gordon Givens, affectionately known as "The Giggler," 80, of Lapel, passed away peacefully, surrounded and comforted by his loving family on New Year's Eve, Saturday, Dec. 31, 2022, at Community Hospital Anderson following a brief illness.

He was born on July 12, 1942 in Anderson to Dallas Givens and Des-sie Mae (Kreegar) Givens.

Mr. Givens graduated from Anderson High School, Class of 1960. He retired after 31 1/2 years from Delco Remy, a Division of General Motors, as a security officer. Always ready with a smile and known for his fun-loving, mischievous pranks, "The Giggler" thoroughly enjoyed working with his peers. Mr. Givens' coworkers and friends often shared hilarious stories of "The Giggler's" good-natured antics. His contagious laughter and sense of humor brought much joy and happiness to life inside and outside the factory.

In his bib overalls and t-shirt, he was always willing to help friends and family. Having an incredible mechanical ability, it seemed as though Mr. Givens could fix anything. He loved the outdoors and tinkering. You could often find him in his barn or on his lawnmower, mowing his yard to perfection - a "job" he thoroughly enjoyed. His family meant everything to him. Together, they enjoyed countless family vacations, including hunting trips to Wyoming and long weekends camping at state parks. He loved spending time with his grandchildren teaching them many life skills and how to have fun - unfortunately, they never really knew the "real words" to nursery rhymes. After retirement, Mr. Givens and his wife especially enjoyed good times with their many friends at the Lapel Fraternal Order of Eagles, where they are members.

Survivors include his wife Lola (Patton) Givens, whom he married on July 19, 1963; 3 children Ronald (Julie) Givens of Carmel, Scott Givens of Anderson and Leah (Chris) Sanders of Anderson; brother Douglas (Susan) Givens of Ohio; 3 sisters-in-law Jane Givens of Greenwood, Patsy (Lee) Cash of Anderson and Linda Van Dalsen of Virginia; 1 special cousin Richard Catt ("Uncle Dickey") of Anderson; 2 special nieces Cindy Glover of Lapel and Patti (Dan) Brinker of Lapel; 4 grandchildren Renee (Charlie) Brattain, Andrea (Joe Walker) Givens, Abigail Maxey and Michael Maxey; 1 great-grandchild Jordan Brattain; and beloved pet Zoey.

He was preceded in death by his parents and brother Stephen Givens.

A memorial service is scheduled to be held at 4 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 6, 2023 at Hersberger-Bozell Funeral Home, 1010 North Main St. in Lapel.

Visitation for family and friends is scheduled to run from 2-4 p.m. at the funeral home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Lapel Fraternal Order of Eagles Aerie #4323.

Visit IndianaUnclaimed.gov to Kick Off the New Year

After ringing in the new year, Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita invites Hoosiers to visit IndianaUnclaimed.gov to see if they have some extra money waiting for them in 2023.

"Our hardworking Hoosiers deserve to have their money returned," Rokita said. "My office is committed to serving the people of Indiana and protecting their individual liberty. Getting unclaimed property back in the hands of its rightful owner is crucial."

With the new year rolling in, let's celebrate together with newly discovered cash.

In 2022, Rokita's office returned over $62 million in unclaimed property to its rightful owners. This is in addition to the $48 million returned in unclaimed property in 2021.

While you're spending time with family and friends over the holidays, be sure to also ask loved ones about assets and send them to our website.

Unclaimed property is any financial asset with no activity by its owner for an extended period of time. This can include once unclaimed property in its custody. The Unclaimed Property Division at Attorney General Rokita's office conducts outreach efforts to locate the rightful owners or heirs.

Individuals and/or businesses have 25 years to claim money once it is reported to the Unclaimed Property Division.

Over $700 million remains to be claimed, and it can be returned to its rightful owners in 2023.

Code § 5-16-13 et seq. and Ind. Code § 36-1-12 et seq., to the lowest responsible and responsive Bidder whose bid does not exceed the funds available for the Project. Noblesville High School students Nolan Campbell (from left, as Tyler), Rory Jones (as Lexi), Lucy Stambaugh (as Sara), Stevie Miles (as Jack) are featured in Underdog Theatre's next production, "The Choices We Make," written and co-directed by Clay Howard, at 7 p.m. Friday and 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. Saturday in Celebration Hall at Noblesville First United Methodist Church. Crew members include Laiken Charpie (front, from left), lighting operator; Roux Carney, stage manager; and J Herold, sound operator.

I think that's something anyone can relate to, whether you're in high school or not."

The Noblesville resident said, "I wanted to tell a story of cliques in a way that most don't tell ... I feel like each character has their own journey, and that journey takes them to different places...."

The Underdog Theatre will present "The Choices We Make," an original one-act play written and directed by Howard on stage for three performances, at 7 p.m. Friday and 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. Saturday in Celebration Hall at Noblesville First United Methodist Church, 2051 Monument St. The play is co-directed by Howard and NHS junior and drama student Sean Wood (who recently played the role of Roxie in NHS's fall musical, "Chicago: Teen Edition.")

Underdog Theatre was founded in 2015 by Rylan Deer -- a 2016 NHS grad who participated in NHS Thespians drama club, National Honor Society and NHS orchestra -- and who started the theater as a student project at NHS.

Howard got involved with Underdog Theatre his freshman year. "A friend of mine encouraged me to audition for a show, 'She Kills Monsters,' and from there I stayed involved, and eventually was given the role of director in 2020," Howard said.

Underdog Theatre is a community theater for local high school and college-age students. "We strive to create an environment for young and inexperienced actors, giving them a chance they won't find elsewhere," Howard said, quoting Underdog's website. Underdog also gives experienced actors the chance to break their typecast. Since its formation, Underdog has passed down its directorship, giving students the chance to perform a variety of roles.

With students' busy NHS schedules, including NHS's November production of "Chicago: Teen Edition," and NHS's December Thespian Competition Show, Underdog Theatre rehearsals started out with rehearsals only once a week.

"It was difficult not having consistent rehearsals, but the actors' dedication and work got us through it," Howard said.

Play rehearsals began at Green Valley Church of Christ in Noblesville, then two weeks out from the performance moved into the Noblesville First UMC, where performances will take place on the stage in the church's large and beautiful Celebration Hall.

As of last week, he said, "Rehearsals are going well."

For this play, Howard and his co-director Sean Wood said their cast of four are "strong actors who have not gotten as much of a chance as they should (in high school productions). Most of our actors have only been in one or two productions or have only ever been given ensemble roles."

That's why the theater is called the "Underdog Theatre," Howard said, "It's very important to me that Underdog gives the 'underdog' a chance as it did for me back in high school."

He said, "I am incredibly proud of the actors, crew and fellow leaders of 'The Choices We Make' and I hope this show makes an impact."

The cast of four features NHS students Stevie Miles as Jack, the Jock; Rory Jones, as Lexi, the Cheerleader; Nolan Campbell as Tyler, the Stoner; and Lucy Stambaugh, as Sara, the Nerd.

The crew features NHS students, Roux Carney, stage manager; Laiken Charpie, lighting operator; J Herold, sound operator; and Parker Wood, prompter; NHS grad Brenna Helms, makeup artist; NHS student Jenna Chreist, show artist; and NHS student Kenzie Wood and NHS grad Olivia Talevski as house staff.

"I can't emphasize enough how important these people are to bringing this production together," Howard said. "Their hard work keeps things running smoothly and help shine a Talent" in 2020 and "Dare or Scare" in 2018.

After Howard's 2022 graduation, he is spending a year off and working as a theater technician and has also volunteered as crew for local community theater productions. Howard said, "I would like to go into theater management full time," similar to the managing and directing he's doing with Underdog Theatre.

What's next? "We definitely have a lot of ideas rolling around," he said. "We plan to do a two-act play in the spring of 2023, and we have some other smaller projects that we are interested in producing, such as talent shows."

Howard said, "Underdog is starting a new chapter, and we hope to bring a lot more content to the world."

Following each 25-minute performance this weekend, there will be an audience Q&A during which patrons are invited to ask questions to the cast, crew and directors.

Tickets are $5 cash or $7 credit/debit card at the door. For more information, visit www.underdogtheatre.org ing the aged and decrepit form of '1922' silently passed into the abyss of retrospection at 12 o'clock Sunday night with a tremendous uproar in Noblesville."

(There are a couple more paragraphs like that, but you probably get the drift, so I'll spare you those.)

According to the Ledger, the transition from 1922 to 1923 was a noisy one. Church bells, train whistles, gun shots, "torpedoes" and the fire whistle made sure even Noblesville residents who retired early knew that 1923 had arrived.

(Not being very fireworks savvy, I had to look up "torpedoes." They're a fuseless firecracker that explodes on contact with a hard surface.)

Despite New Year's Eve falling on a Sunday that year, some unsettled weather and "other handicaps," attendance at most December 31 religious services was said to be unusually good.

Noblesville's Bethel AME church held its traditional New Year's Eve watch meet to usher out the old year at midnight.

On New Year's Day, the sermons in all the city's churches emphasized "sound keynote resolutions for 1923" and reflected a need for "greater evangelistic interest in church life."

To that end, the Friends churches in Noblesville and Eagletown began revivals on New Year's Eve, as did Arcadia's Methodist Episcopal Church.

There were worldly holiday distractions, too, however.

The Kappa Alpha Phi fraternity's annual New Year's Dance was held in the Knights of Pythias Armory on Dec. 29. In 1922 the fraternity partnered with the College Society to put on the affair, which featured music by the Bud Gilbreth Pierrots.

(A Pierrot is a French pantomime character. I couldn't find any information on this particular group, but I'm guessing they performed with whitened faces and wore the Pierrots' traditional clown-like costume.)

The dance was open to any county residents who currently attended college or who had attended in the past, and their out-of-town guests.

On Dec. 30, the Cicero Boys Band held a concert and box supper at Collings Hall in Cicero. Admission was 10 cents.

Noblesville's Wild Opera House encouraged patrons to start their New Year's entertainment right with New Year's Day showings of Universal Pictures' "The Kentucky Derby." ("Smashing thrills on land and sea!")

Area businesses also took note of the holiday.

Haines Drug Store advertised blank books — ledgers, daybooks, journals, etc. — and other items, such as pens and ink (in pints and quarts!) to help residents with their record-keeping in the new year.

The Dec. 30, 1922 Ledger contained over two pages of New Year's greetings from various local establishments, while the Ledger itself issued a New Year's greeting to readers in the form of a front page editorial.

The Ledger declared its greeting was one of "hope and faith." That seems to have been the general attitude toward 1923.

Notable Nineties Update: Leanna VanVoorst added former NHS football standout Morris "Moose" Stern to the Notable Nineties list.

Also, David Sutton added his mother, Marilyn Sutton. Marilyn and her husband, Joe, used to run Sutton's Tynee Nook, a children's clothing store on the east side of the square.

Congratulations!
