FACES OF HAMILTON COUNTY

What makes Craig Thurston smile? "My family," said the 49-year-old Noblesville resident. His wife's name is Ashley and he has two stepkids, Dylan, 14, and Gwen, 8, and two sons, George, 5, and Colter, just turned 4 on Saturday. He was born in Kokomo and moved to Noblesville after second grade in the summer to start third grade at Hinkle Creek Elementary School. He graduated in 1991 from Noblesville High School. He started playing guitar late, at age 19, while attending Indiana University Kokomo. From there, he went to Indiana University Bloomington and studied music with Atanas Tzvetkov as his guitar instructor. Craig plays ukulele, mandolin, bass, keys and harmonica. His next gigs are 5 to 8 p.m. Thursday at the Back 9 Golf & Entertainment in Indy, 6 to 9 p.m. Jan. 26 at Grindstone Public House in Noblesville, and the first and third Thursday beginning in February through 2023 at Grindstone Public House. He didn't start a family or get married until he was in his 40s. He said, "My greatest achievement is my family."

And Another Thing...

1. Doomsday Clock

Are we closer to Doomsday? We'll find out what the stewards of the Doomsday Clock think soon. The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists say they will announce whether the time of the iconic "Doomsday Clock" will change during a live virtual news conference on Tuesday. The Doomsday Clock is a metaphor for how close humanity is to self-annihilation. It also serves as a call-to-action to reverse the hands, which have been moved backward before. The decision is made by the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists' Science and Security Board in consultation with the Bulletin's Board of Sponsors, which includes 11 Nobel Laureates.

2. Spartz Statement

Noblesville's Congressional Representative Victoria Spartz weighed in on the approaching deadline regarding the national debt. Her pointed comments addressed what she called crony capitalism. She also said she would not accept any PAC money from the health industry. "Our national debt is approaching a level not just harmful to economic growth and irresponsible to future generations, but dangerous to our national security today," Spartz said. "We are entering treacherous waters and must couple any debt ceiling increases with real reforms. Huge amounts of politically directed spending and crony capitalism have created a significant oligopoly problem in nearly every market sector - not much different from oligarchs ruling in post-socialist countries. Health care monopolies lobbied by special interest groups, like hospitals, is one of the major examples. Republicans need to grow a backbone and pass some real reforms, or we will end up with socialism. I'll be fighting with every tool at my disposal to deliver effective health care policies and will not be accepting any industry PAC contributions this cycle."

Noblesville Elks Doing Good for Boys & Girls Club Kids

BETSY REASON The Times Editor

Once a month, Noblesville Elks Lodge members serve pizza to kids at the Boys & Girls Club of Noblesville.

Elks members' greatest satisfaction comes in watching the Club kids come through the door of the Club cafeteria and head to the serving counter to pick up their slice of pizza, and return to the counter for seconds.

The Elks members serve about 25 pizzas during each monthly pizza meal at the Club.

Last fall, a $3,500 Elks National grant, which came to the Boys & Girls Club in the form of a check, and presented by the Noblesville Elks to the Club as a giant check, at one of the pizza nights, would pay for the pizza from September 2022 through February 2023.

"We enjoy the kids. They're a lot of fun," said Noblesville Elk Geoff Robinson, who is also the state president, sworn in June 4, for Indiana Elks Association. Locally, he is also the Lodge secretary, membership chairman, orientation chairman and scholarship chairman. Robinson said the Noblesville Elks were required to submit a project plan to Elks National on how the club members would use the money. He was thrilled when the Lodge learned of the grant.

On this particular serving day, Robinson was joined by other Elks members volunteering their time, Terri Sigman-Kennedy, Jason and Annette Snyder, Randy and Cindy King and Phil Anderson. Before serving pizza, they posed for a photo with the big check, along with Club staff

Do You Remember? ... 10th and Pleasant

PAULA DUNN From Time to Thyme

My friend, Pam Ferber, recently gave me some newspaper clippings her late mother, Pat Gibbs, had saved. Pat was very interested in genealogy and local history, and she'd cut out a LOT of articles.

Among Pat's clippings are some titled "Remember When?" and "Do You Remember?" A little research revealed that this was a feature in The Times from about 2008 to 2014 or 2015.

As I went through those "Remember When?" items, I noticed they contained quite a few interesting Hamilton County memories I hadn't yet covered. Take the intersection of 10th and Pleasant Streets in Noblesville. There's enough history in that area alone to fill a column.

Try this "Do You Remember?"

"Remember when the Burger Chef restaurant was on the northwest corner of 10th and Pleasant Streets where the El Camino Real restaurant is today? Anna Barker, Noblesville."

I sure do! That building, constructed in 1970, was originally a Burger Chef. If I remember correctly, Burger Chef was the third fast food chain to locate in Noblesville after Clancy's and McDonald's.

Oliver "Ollie" Barker, 83, of Bonita Springs, Florida, formerly of Franklin, Indiana, went to be with the lord on September 8, 2022.

He was born in Noblesville to Arza and Helen Barker.

Mr. Barker was in the graduating class of 1957 from Kirklin High School in Kirklin, Indiana and went on to become a master electrician. He enjoyed boating, camping, fishing, family time and giving his talents and abilities to help others. He was always friendly and ready to lend a hand when needed.

Survivors include his wife of 57 years, Verna Jean Barker of Bonita Springs, Fla.; sister Rosemary Dodd of Ladonia, Missouri; 5 children Rick (Susan) Barker, Teri Swinford, Glen H. Carmel Symphony Orchestra Heats Up the Night With Serpentine Fire

Las Vegas' hottest vocal and instrumental talents team up with the Carmel Symphony Orchestra (CSO) under Artistic Director Janna Hymes on Jan. 28 for CSO's January Pops presentation - Serpentine Fire: The Music of Earth, Wind & Fire.

The concert starts at 7:30 p.m. at the Palladium at the Center for the Performing Arts in Carmel. Tickets start at just $25 and are available at the Palladium Fifth Third Bank Box Office, (317) 843-3800 or online at thecenterpresents.org.

"Earth, Wind & Fire is my all-time favorite group, in fact it seems to be just about everyone's favorite group from the reaction we're getting to this concert!" said CSO Artistic Director Janna Hymes.

"Serpentine Fire is a dynamic celebration of these great Rock & Roll Hall of Famers! It's going to be a sensational evening of music that everyone knows and loves, so join us at the Palladium on January 28, and let's groove!"

Serpentine Fire lead vocalist is Tyriq Johnson, whose soaring falsetto and stage persona drew the attention of multiple national acts working in Las Vegas where he and his twin brother John performed in clubs and casino showrooms during the early 2000s.

The Serpentine Fire project grew out of Tyriq's friendship with Earth, Wind & Fire's Verdine

White and Ralph Johnson, who found his voice a perfect fit for their musical catalog. In 2019, arranger/conductor Mariano Longo joined forces with Tyriq to create a unique, exciting and irresistible symphony/pops presentation of the gigantic hits from the '70s and '80s - Serpentine Fire: The Music of Earth, Wind & Fire.

Carmel Symphony Orchestra, currently in the midst of its 47th season, is a resident company of the Palladium at the Center for the Performing Arts located in Carmel's City Center district. An abundance of free parking - in garages, lots and curbside - is available within easy walking distance of the Palladium. There also are numerous restaurants in the area for pre- or post-concert dining.

CSO recently was awarded two "Best Of" accolades for 2022 by respected arts maven Tom Alvarez in his long-running On the Aisle column: a Top Ten Performing Arts Event for its season-opening Hispanic Heritage Concert, and a Top Ten Performing Arts Luminaries nod to Artistic Director Janna Hymes for being among the area's "most creative, innovative and impactful artists and arts administrators" of the year.

Additional information about Serpentine Fire: The Music of Earth, Wind & Fire and a preview of the remainder of performances during CSO's current season can be found at carmsymphony.org.

The 2022-23 Carmel Symphony Orchestra season is supported by the City of Carmel, the Center for the Performing Arts, the Palladium and Pedcor.

Chelsea Handler, Wallflowers Tickets On Sale Friday

Comedian and talk host Chelsea Handler and rock band the Wallflowers are the latest additions to the schedule at the Center for the Performing Arts.

Each is appearing for the first time at the Center's Palladium concert hall. Handler performs at 8 p.m. April 14, with tickets starting at $49.50. The Wallflowers, led by singer-songwriter and folk-rock scion Jakob Dylan, perform at 7:30 p.m. April 26, with tickets starting at $35.

Each show goes on public sale at 10 a.m. Friday at the Palladium's Fifth Third Bank Box Office, online at TheCenter-

Presents.org and by phone at (317) 843-3800.

Handler is one of the most celebrated voices in entertainment and pop culture, best known for her seven-year stint hosting E!'s top-rated Chelsea Lately, during which she was the only female late-night talk show host on the air. She has penned six New York Times best-selling books, including 2019's Life Will Be the Death of Me, which she is adapting for television. Her recent comedy specials have included 2020's Evolution on HBO Max and the new Revolution, which premiered in December on Netflix.

The Wallflowers first scored national success with their 1996 album Bringing Down the Horse and its hit singles "6th Avenue Heartache" and "One Headlight," which tops Billboard's list of "Greatest of All Time Adult Alternative Songs." After several acclaimed group and solo albums and a nine-year hiatus, Dylan revamped the band for the latest album, Exit Wounds, which critics have called "his best original work" (Mojo) and "a stunning body of work by anyone's standards" (Spin).

Both events are part of the 2022-2023 Center Presents Season, presented in partnership with Allied Solutions. The Wallflowers are presented through the Katz, Sapper & Miller Pop/Rock Series.

that included Club unit director Wendy Casteel, Club program facilitator Emily Seig, and nearly a dozen smiling Club kids.

Robinson said he enjoys serving pizza each month. The Lodge has been serving pizza to Club kids for 10 years. The grant money covers pizza for the year. "We just have to do a report to Grand Lodge before the end of the Lodge year, and we have designated the end of February as the date of the final report.

Why he enjoys serving? "It's very rewarding. Elks members and spouses enjoy it as much as the kids like to have pizza," Robinson said.

While the pizza meals are served at the Club monthly, he tries to attend every other month "to spread the opportunity of our Lodge members to serve the community."

In 2022, the Elks Lodge raised about $30,000.00 for cancer charities, to provide food for families in need around the holidays, while also supplying funds for food for FeedingTeam.org, and continued its partnership with the Lincoln Apartments in replenishing their food and hygiene pantries. The lodge gave thousands of dollars in scholarships to young people in our community, plus several donations to various other local community groups that help further missions that are very important to the Elks. The Elks organized another successful Hoop Shoot with shooters advancing in all six groups, boys/girls ages 8-9, 10-11, 12-13.

In 2023, the Noblesville Elks have already been busy, with a euchre tournament last weekend and will host a community blood drive from 9 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. this Saturday. Also, this Saturday, at 6 p.m. the Noblesville Elks will host a Texas Hold 'Em tournament, with a $50 entry fee, for Elks members only. There are always activities going on at the Noblesville Elks Lodge on South Ninth Street, just west of Conner Street off of the Court-house Square.

Noblesville Elks is among 1,800 Elks Lodges across the nation with a total membership of about 800,000 members. Elks members must be American citizens and at least 21 years of age and must believe in God.

Burger Chef was the third fast food chain to locate in Noblesville after Clancy's and McDonald's.

Remember Burger Chef's signature items? — the Big Chef, a double decker hamburger that predated the Big Mac, and the Super Chef, a quarter pound hamburger.

When the Burger Chef chain was acquired by Hardee's in 1982, the building was converted into a Hardee's. After the current Hardee's opened on Conner Street, the 10th Street location closed. The old Burger Chef building then housed multiple Chinese restaurants before becoming El Camino Real in 1997.

El Camino Real was the second Mexican restaurant to open here in the last 26 years or so. The first, a place called Gringo's, doesn't seem to have been around long.

Gringo's was not, however, the first Mexican restaurant I recall in Noblesville. Back in the 1970s, a Mexican restaurant opened in the old Hoosier Dairy building on Maple Avenue, between Eighth and Ninth streets (where the fire station is currently.) I don't remember the restaurant's name. I think it was only around a couple of years. Does anybody else recall it?

Another "Do You Remember?":

"Do you remember when the Dairy Queen was across 10th Street and across Pleasant Street from where it is now? Joe Taylor, Noblesville."

Oh, yes!

Noblesville's original Dairy Queen was on the southwest corner of the intersection in the building that later became Firehouse Pizza. Like the pizza place, that DQ was also a walk-up stand with no inside seating. It wasn't until the new building was constructed that you could sit inside to eat your ice cream.

That leads to my last "Do You Remember?":

"Remember when the site at 10th and Pleasant Streets where the Dairy Queen is today was a Humble service station? Charles Baird, Noblesville."

This one got me. I didn't recall what had been on that northeast corner before the second DQ.

The service station was actually an Enco station,

"Enco" being a brand name used by the Humble Oil and Refining Company. The Enco station opened around 1967. Prior to that, a Hoosier Pete filling station had occupied that location.

In 1975, the Dairy Queen's owner, Harvey Tunget, decided he needed to enlarge the business, so he bought the lot that had been the Enco service station and moved his DQ across 10th Street.

A lot of history has been lost at 10th and Pleasant — even more than you know.

When the original DQ was built in 1954 AND when the Burger Chef was constructed in 1970, the houses that were razed to make way for them were both discovered to have begun as log cabins and may have been among the oldest homes in Noblesville.

Now, sadly, even the buildings that replaced them are gone.

Thanks to Tim Timmons and Nancy Massey for additional research.
