In case you haven't heard, Hamilton County and Noblesville are both turning 200 this year. To celebrate, every month from March to November one of the county's nine townships is being highlighted by the Bicentennial Commission.

doing a quiz on each month's featured township. (Hopefully I'll be able to keep this up for nine months!) March was actually White River Township's turn in the spotlight, so I'm a little late getting started, but don't worry, I'll catch up. Test your knowledge of White River Township history! (I've written about most of this in previous columns, so if you're a regular reader, this quiz shouldn't be too hard. If you get stuck, however, the answers are at the end of the column.)

When I was a young boy in the late 1960's, taking care of our neighbors was the norm. It was expected that I'd mow Mrs. Berry's yard and make sure that the 90-year-old widow had what she needed. She'd been born two decades before the turn of the century, yes, before, the 20th century. It wasn't an unusual occurrence; many others had their own Mrs. Berry to take care of. Fast forward to 2023 and leading a food charity, both the best and the worst of people are on regular display. While we acknowledge that poor behavior exists, each year we take special time to focus on and recognize those from our community who selflessly choose to serve others in our neighborhoods. It's our hope you will join us as we recognize, as Mrs. Berry would describe, 'fine folks', some truly special neighbors in

New Mexico officially is the first state in the nation to have an official aroma, namely the 'sweet smell of green chili peppers roasting in the fall.' The state is a major producer of chili peppers and, in the most recent growing season, produced a record 53,000 tons of the spicy treats. In fact, the Rio Grande town of Hatch, NM, is known as the 'Chili Capital of the World.'

"Hamilton County Invasive Species Awareness Week is an opportunity for all of us to come together and learn about the destruction invasive species cause to our beloved parks and natural areas and our yards," said Claire Lane, spokesperson for the Hamilton County Invasives Partnership. "Invasive species are a growing threat to our native ecosystems, and it's up to all of us to take action to prevent their spread."

The Hamilton County Invasives Partnership is a collaborative effort between the Hamilton County Soil and Water Conservation District, local parks departments and conservation organizations, and concerned citizens and property managers. Together, they work to control the spread of invasive species and restore native habitats in Hamilton County.

Cicero Cemetery Lantern Walk Set For April

The community is invited to attend a special lantern walk through the historic Cicero Cemetery from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 22. ## Westfield Announces Events In Conjunction With The Hamilton County Bicentennial

The City of Westfield, Westfield Washington Township, and the Westfield Chamber of Commerce are pleased to announce events in Westfield in conjunction with the Hamilton County Bicentennial.

The Hamilton County Bicentennial commemorates the county's 200 years of history and takes place throughout 2023. The month of June is designated as the celebration of Washington township.

"The collaboration with the Township, the Chamber of Commerce, Historical Society, and the Hamilton County Bicentennial Commission to bring a series of free events to celebrate 200 years is quite the achievement," said Mayor Andy Cook. "This is a once-in-a-lifetime celebration, and we are proud to host these events in the heart of our downtown at Grand Junction Plaza."

The events are as follows:

Thursday, June 1st
Westfield Farmers Market

The Westfield Farmers Market, produced by Downtown Westfield Association, lasts from 5 until 8 pm at Grand Junction Plaza. Join local farmers and artisan vendors each week.

Westfield High School's American Pie: Reprise

Westfield High School's "American Pie" concert reminds us how much WHS rocks. This themed concert takes the audience on a journey through history via music. The theme for this year is "I'm going back to Indiana." The student performers and the school's professional house band, led by Mr. Jeff McLaughlin, are top-tier. This free concert will be a reprise of their May fundraiser. Merchandise will be available for purchase. The show begins at 6 pm, and a free parking shuttle will be available.

While the concert is free, VIP Packages are available and include a 10'x10' reserved area on the Great Lawn for up to four people, two commemorative bicentennial blankets, a Hamilton County Bicentennial cooler bag, and a graze box from 317 Charcuterie for $200.

Other activities at Grand Junction Plaza include free airbrush tattoos, the Hamilton County Bicentennial Traveling Exhibit, and learning about the oldest tree in Westfield.

Friday, June 2nd
Pancakes on Park

Head over to Park Street at 8 am for breakfast with the Westfield Fire Department on Friday morning. Enjoy pancakes, sausage, coffee, and juice while dining al fresco. Tickets are $5 in advance and $10 at the door; this event is open to the public, and businesses are encouraged to bring their employees for a team breakfast. Two levels of sponsored tables are available for purchase, starting at $100 per table.

Bicentennial Kick-Off Concert

Three-time BMA nominee The Reverend Peyton's Big Damn Band is "the greatest front-porch blues band in the world" and will take the main stage at Grand Junction Plaza on Friday at 7 pm. Local recording artist Kassey King will open the show at 6 pm. A free parking shuttle will be available for the evening. While the concert is free, VIP Packages are available and include a 10'x10' reserved area on the Great Lawn for up to four people, two commemorative bicentennial blankets, a Hamilton County Bicentennial cooler bag, and a graze box from 317 Charcuterie for $200.

Saturday, June 3rd
The Westfield Washington Historical Society will hold its ribbon cutting on the Barker Log Cabin (136 Penn Street) at 10 am. The cabin was originally built in 1835 by Nicholas Barker.

Beginning at 11 am, the WWHS will host numerous food trucks, pony rides, a small car and fire truck show, a dunk tank, and a photo booth. The Rusty Musket band will be playing folk songs, old sea shanties, and music from the past with their four-piece band. All festivities will occur near WWHS and Westfield City Hall (130 Penn Street). All events are free and open to the public.

General sponsorships are available for the Westfield Washington Township celebration of events. Please contact Kayla Arnold, Director of Westfield Welcome, at karnold@westfield.in.gov for more information.

"Snow White Variety Show" with Fishers Junior High Theatre. When she was younger, she also performed in the role of Margaret Gormley of the Ballet Corp in "Billy Elliot: The Musical."

At Fishers High School, performing with Theatre Fishers, Booher was a cast member in "Bring It On," "Our Town" (as Mrs. Gibbs), "The Addams Family (a dance captain), "Mamma Mia!" (as Tanya) and "Peter and the Starcatcher (as Gremplin/teacher and choreographer) along with student-directed One Acts and several Coffeehouse performances. And we saw a couple of those shows, including the most recent "Mamma Mia!" Every time, Booher amazed the audience with her singing and dancing.

She also worked with Civic Theatre during high school, was a cast member of "A Chorus Line" and "Saturday Night Fever (as Connie and dance captain)." And my daughter saw the latter.

Performing arts opportunities have been good for Booher.

She has studied dance since kindergarten, most recently at EnPointe Indiana Ballet in Noblesville, to prepare her for a career on the stage. She studied piano with Judi Kidd at Melody Music and voice with Angela Resler at Resler Music. She spent her high school senior year serving as a teacher assistant for her high school's Dance Performance class.

At FHS, where Booher graduated as a Fishers Tiger in 2022 with honors, Booher, being student body senior class officer, was lucky enough to be involved in planning graduation's special events, including being on stage to lead the Turning of the Tassel. She also served the community as a Girl Scout for a decade.

At FHS, she was president of Theatre Fishers, the school's drama club. It was her drama teacher, Anna Nickel, who nominated Booher for the Underclassman of the Year Award for Excellence in Drama, which Booher was awarded, along with the Underclassman of the Year Award for Excellence in Choir, an award for which she was nominated by teacher Tess Tazioli.

Booher was an accomplished high school performer, a four-year member of the FHS Show Choirs, Fishers Sound and Fishers Electrum, and in her senior year, she served as dance captain for both groups.

And when your choir wins the State Championship, which Fishers Sound did in 2022 (and also in 2023), the choir receives a $1,000 scholarship for the director to award whomever they choose from the winning choir. Booher was presented that award -- the Indiana Dairy Farmers Winners Drink Milk ISSMA Unisex State Championship Scholarship -- from Ms. Tazioli on Senior Awards Night. Booher was also put in the 2023 program, and got to present the "big check" in March to the 2023 Unisex Grand Champions, which happened to be Fishers Sound. She was also invited back to this year's FHS Silver Spotlight show choir competition as the Outstanding Performance judge to choose the best performer.

She was awarded a scholarship in memory of lifelong Noblesville resident Nettie Ann Schembra presented by the Hamilton Southeastern Schools Foundation, and a scholarship from HSE's Durbin Elementary, where she was in the Student Council.

"I didn't have expectations about specific awards, but I was hopeful," she said.

"My senior year and graduating year has had so many ups and downs," Booher told me. "I chose to pursue the performing arts in college, so I had so many auditions and trying to balance auditions, show choir and the musical I was in, and just having a social life, became really stressful."

She applied to and was academically accepted to 34 colleges her senior year. Why so many?

"When you apply for performing arts and are planning for a Bachelor of Fine Arts, there are limited spots, and you never know if you're going to be the right fit for what they are looking for," Booher said. "So, I was advised to not get my heart set anywhere until I got accepted, and to apply everywhere that you think is a good fit for you personally." She didn't keep track of the number of BFA programs that she was accepted into. Being accepted into a BFA program is completely separate from being accepted to the college.

"Once I finished the audition process and narrowed down my schools, I felt like there was a huge weight lifted off my shoulders," Booher said. "The last half of my senior year was about making memories and just finally enjoying it."

The summer before her college freshman year, she had an internship at Civic Theatre and in the evenings was in rehearsals for Civic's "42nd Street" musical, while also working part time at Kinney Dancewear in Noblesville. Because Booher was so busy, her very supportive parents, Janice and Edd Booher, and younger sister, Abby, who is always busy with FHS band, specifically percussion, were doing most all of Booher's preparations for college.

Booher, who is thankful for her first performance opportunities, which were at The Belfry, is using Belfry Theatre's 2022 scholarship for performing arts at BSU, where she is pursuing a degree in Fine Arts with a focus in dance, hoping to, one day, become a professional choreographer.

When she auditioned for the 59th cast of BSU's University Singers show choir, to no surprise, she got in. The show choir sang the National Anthem in February at the Indiana Pacers vs. Bulls game. And a reminder, Booher concludes her first year with University Singers during a Singers Spectacular on April 14-15, and her first main stage show, "Taste of Broadway," April 26-29, at BSU's University Theatre, and both are open to the public with tickets available.

What else? While in high school, Booher was nominated "Most likely to win a Grammy" and "Most likely to be a movie star."

I'm not surprised. Can't wait to hear what she accomplishes next.

2. Both Aroma and Omega have unusual nicknames. What are they?

by telling them, "You're just a peanut gang."

3. True or False — White River Township is the oldest township in Hamilton County.

2. Aroma was called "Toadlope" because of the loud croaking of the frogs on nearby Duck Creek. Omega was dubbed "Dogtown" by a mail carrier who said he'd never seen so many dogs in one community.

4. What does the "Koteewi" in Strawtown Koteewi Park mean?

3. True. When Hamilton County was laid out in 1823, it was initially divided into just two townships, White River and Delaware. White River Township was named first, so it's considered the oldest township — by a few minutes. (The remaining seven townships weren't created until 1833.)

6. What do Mulberry, Fairy Glade and Lightning Point have in common?

4. Koteewi, pronounced ko-TAY-wee, means "fire" or "prairie" in the Miami-Peoria language.

7. Name two of the "firsts" claimed by Walnut Grove High School.

8. What are the two theories about the origin of Strawtown's name?

5. If you believe the county histories, the first settler was a man named John Shintaffer. The 1820

And now the answers: 1. The Peanut Gang. They took their name from a man who scolded them for teasing a drunk census, on the other hand, only lists a "Phillip Chintaffer." (Several spelling variations of the last name exist, too.)

Whatever the man's name was, he operated a trading post in the Strawtown area and is notorious for having been responsible for this county's only fatal conflict between Native Americans and settlers.

6. They were White River Township schools in the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

7. Walnut Grove was the first Indiana school outside of the large cities to have a manual training department, the first in this state to have a gym used for physical education and athletics, and it organized the first boys' corn club in the nation.

8. Helm's 1880 county history cites an 1850 Indiana Gazetteer that claimed "Strawtown" came "from a house in it, thatched with straw." However, he also mentions the more widely accepted explanation that Strawtown was named for Chief Straw or Strawbridge, the leader of a band of Native Americans who lived nearby.

Since I've never run across any references to a thatched straw house in Strawtown's early history, my money's on the latter theory. We know Strawtown was the site of a Delaware village. Moreover, the name, "Strawtown," follows the pattern of the nearby Delaware towns, Sarah Town and Nancy Town.

Hamilton County. The 2023 Feeding Team Volunteer recognition dinner is a fun filled evening with a raffle, silent auction, table magic, dinner, and a world class stage magic show. This casual and family friendly event is the evening of April 25th 5:30 – 8:30, at the Mill Top in Noblesville. The public is invited to join us, tickets are required, tickets and a few sponsorships are still available. Go here www.one.bidpal.net/feedingteam2 for tickets. Email here charity@feedingteam.org to sponsor or donate for the silent auction.

Feeding Team is a 501C3 not for profit organization and like other charities, we run on passion, effort, donations, and compassion. We are on a mission to feed as many hungry neighbors as possible.

Once a year we take time to recognize those in our community who volunteer and sacrifice much, so that those who don't have, can have. This year we are combining the recognition of pantry hosts and volunteers with an opportunity for the community to join us and feed hungry neighbors too.

This event acknowledges the best of our communities; caring people who donate locations along with neighbors that demonstrate their heart for the needy by taking a night to celebrate with us. The event recognizes Feeding Team volunteers who donate countless efforts and thousands of hours annually to the collection and distribution of food for families who otherwise could go hungry. Pantries are located across Hamilton County. This access gives those in need choices to get a meal when they are without.

You can help in a very simple way. Get some tickets or sponsor a table. Either way, you get to enjoy a wonderful meal, up close magic, a stage show, and all for a great cause. The entertainment will be provided by Jon Mobley, who recently made his second appearance in Las Vegas on Penn and Tellers, "Fool Me" television program. Jon is a Hamilton County native and nationally recognized for his skills as a magician and mentalist. With over 44,000 food challenged neighbors in Hamilton County, www.Feedingteam.org is a registered 501C3 not for profit organization that provides outdoor 24x7x365 no questions asked free food pantries throughout the county. The pantries exist, to meet the food insecurity needs of GAP families, neighbors that may not qualify for public assistance and could use a few meals before payday. The pantries serve as many food-challenged neighbors as possible, and our hearts are with those that, like my family, could not always make ends meet.

Thank you for supporting the pantries. We love serving with so many neighbors across Hamilton County. In future columns we will share more stories about how your generosity served neighbors in times of need. The face of hunger in Hamilton County is not what you may think.

In practical terms this straightforward way to help neighbors is having a real impact on lives, families, and our communities. Thank you. A few meals can change the course of a person's life. A can of green beans means so much more when you have nothing to feed your kids. Would you like to get involved? Volunteer opportunities are available. We are evaluating new pantry locations. If you think you have a potential area location, please contact us. www.feedingteam.org facts – 49 pantries, 10,000 meals in November 2022, over thirty volunteer families. Mark & Lisa Hall are the Founders of Feeding Team.
