What makes Avery Koons smile? "Selling Fall Treats." The 9-yearold, a Noblesville home-schooled fourth-grader, was found with sisters Evelyn, 6, and Annalee, 8, selling "Fall Treats" at their homemade food stand in their neighborhood. They sold caramel corn, caramel apples and pumpkin chocolate chip cookies, all homemade by the sisters. Their menu board was handwritten, and their treats were packaged beautifully on the fall-decorated table. The girls are the daughters of Jason and Jill Koons; Jason is from Anderson (graduated Anderson Highland High School) and Jill is from Crown Point. Avery's favorite school activity? "Reading." What else does she like to do? "I like to ride my bike. When it's raining outside, I watch TV sometimes and play on my iPad." She has taken gymnastics lessons. Avery took a break from the Fall Treats stand to cuddle with her 8-week-old puppy, Chapman (above). "We call him Chap Chap or Chappie," she said. "He is a Mini Double Doodle," a cross between a mini Labradoodle (Labrador Retriever/ Standard Poodle) and a mini Goldendoodle (Golden Retriever/ Standard Poodle). PAULA DUNN From Time to Thyme

- this year's winter weather forecast column!

Before I get started, though, I want to issue the usual disclaimer: I don't really forecast the winter weather. I just provide data from the folk signs that Sheridan's weather expert, Clara Hoover, used to create HER forecasts.

I'll leave it to you to make sense of all this.

The first sign Clara always noted is the number of fogs in August. According to her, we can expect as many big snows as there were foggy August days.

I used the WISH-TV fog maps for the fog count. The maps showed fog in Hamilton County four times: August 4, 10, 19, and 26.

On the first two dates, fog was reported in just a small corner of the county. On August 19, it was only in the east half of the county and on August 26, it only appeared in the west I'm counting four fogs, but since the entire county wasn't covered on any of those days, I'm not sure about that.

The next important sign is the direction of the wind the day before the autumn equinox, the day of the equinox and the day after. For this I used timeanddate.com, which displays local daily weather conditions at midnight, 6 a.m., noon, and 6 p.m.

According to Clara, the wind direction the day before the equinox shows what to expect in November and December. January and February's weather is foretold by the wind on the equinox. The third day predicts March and April's weather.

The wind was incredibly easy to track this year (and a little scary, given the directions.)

On September 22, the wind blew from the east all day. On the equinox, September 23, it came from the east/northeast at midnight and from the northeast the rest of the day. On September 24, the wind was recorded from the northeast, north/northeast, north and east.

On Clara's chart, a north wind foretells cold weather, a northeast wind means heavy snow and a northwest wind predicts blizzard conditions. An east wind is wet cold, a west wind is an indication of cooler weather and a south wind forecasts fair weather. A southwest wind points to fair and cooler weather.

(For some reason she didn't leave an interpretation for a southeast wind.)

OBITUARIES

Nancy Carol Keesling

September 12, 1946, Monday October 9, 2023

Nancy Carol Keesling, age 77, of Sheridan, Indiana, passed away on Monday evening, October 9, 2023, at Riverview Hospital in Noblesville, Indiana, surrounded by her loved ones. Born on September 12, 1946, in Lebanon, Indiana, she was the daughter of the late Charles A. Price, Sr. and Geneva M. (Hubbartt) Price.

Nancy was a member of the Sheridan First Christian Church, where she taught Sunday School and Vacation Bible School for many years. She was a 1964 graduate of Sheridan High School. During her high school years, she was the lead baton twirler for the Sheridan Marching Band. She competed in many twirling competitions throughout her career and was selected to be a member of the VanSickle Twirling Corps., giving her the opportunity of performing in numerous parades across the state. After working for Frozen Novelties in Frankfort, Biddle Screw Products in Sheridan, and Western Electric, it was time for a career change. Nancy, along with her husband Tuffy, managed McDonalds Hardware in Sheridan from 1979-1981. From 1981 onward, she worked at Price Heating and Air Conditioning. If you ever had the pleasure of visiting the hardware store or Price Heating when Nancy was working, you were always greeted with her friendly Nancy devoted herself to her family and delighted in being a Mema to her three grandchildren. She was a gifted storyteller and enjoyed regaling her children and grandchildren with tales of notable family events, especially the more humorous ones. She loved spending time in nature and instilled this into her grandchildren with family camping trips on her daughter's farm. These trips would also include her sisters and their grandchildren. Exploration was always encouraged, and no trip was complete without hiking along the creek and fishing in the pond. An avid reader, Nancy had a reputation for staying up into the wee hours of the morning to finish a good book. Her passion for reading has been passed down to her grandchildren. There was nothing better in this world the being a part of the of the Friday Night Sleepovers at Mema's house. Those nights were filled with card games, movies, crafts, plenty of treats, and memories that her grandchildren will never forget.

Nancy is survived by her son, Kent Keesling of Sheridan; 2 daughters, Karla J. Waitt (John) of Sheridan, and Karol L. Keesling of Whitestown; 3 grandchildren, Emily Waitt of Lebanon, Tennessee, Sarah Waitt of Sheridan, and Jack Waitt (Brittany) of Sheridan; sisters, Judith Ann Jessup (Billy) of Zionsville, and Linda Lou Williams (Jesse) of Sheridan; and her sister-in-law, Sherry Rose Price of Sheridan.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Charles A. Price, Sr., and Geneva M. (Hubbartt) Price; brother, Charles A. Price, Jr.; sister-in-law, Janet Rose Ottinger and her husband Floyd Ottinger; and by her husband, Kenneth Gray "Tuffy" Keesling on April 3, 1998. She and Tuffy were married on June 27, 1964.

A celebration of Nancy's life will be held at 11:00 am on Monday, October 16, 2023, at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th Street, Sheridan, Indiana. Pastor Michael Srblijan will be officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be presented to the Sheridan First Christian Church.

a random-act-of-kindness effort organized by the Society of American Florists, of which Adrienes is a member. The effort was planned for a Wednesday to help the mid-week Adrienes wanted to be a part of the mood-boosting effort and make a difference in the community.

Stephen Craig said Adrienes would be giving out 110 flower bouquets to 55 people late morning today on the east side of the Hamilton County Courthouse Square along Ninth Street. They have green buttons, Alstroemeria, purple daisies, billy balls and other beautiful flowers in the bouquets.

While it's the first time Adrienes has participated in the "Petal It Forward" national effort to help people start their day with a smile, Adrienes had its own "Porch It Forward Day," during the pandemic, offering folks who stopped by the shop's front porch one day on Conner Street a free bouquet to leave on a friend's porch.

What's so wonderful about a flower bouquet?

"It changes the mood for people," Stephen Craig

The Craigs said the original idea behind Petal It Forward's "keep one, share one" flower giveaway concept, which started in 2015, came after looking at statistics that showed while 80 percent of people reported receiving flowers makes them happy, even more -- 88 percent -- said that giving flowers makes them happy. "We want to give people the chance to experience both," Craig said.

Each year when the Noblesville Lions Club members and Noblesville High School Noble Roadies volunteer to deliver flowers for Mother's Day, for Adrienes, Craig said the reactions from people receiving the flowers is "uplifting."

He said, "The mood is much better when people receive flowers."

The shop is blessed, Craig said, to have great flower wholesalers, "the team we have working here," "the people around us" and a supportive com-

In September, Adrienes Flowers & Gifts celebrated its 44th anniversary.

And Stephen and Moffett Craig, both 76 (she's six months older), celebrated their 34th anniversary of working together and owning the business.

Jessie Robinson and husband, World War II U.S. Navy veteran Stanley Robinson, and son, Doug Robinson, started the family business in 1979 believing there was a special need for a floral business to serve the community, according to a family story as shared by their son, Cameron Craig, on the 40th anniversary of the shop in 2019. Adrienes was created for the purpose of being the first florist listed in the Yellow Pages. There is no "Adriene" but a smart move from business savvy that continues today.

Adrienes originally opened south of Conner Street on Eighth Street near the railroad tracks, with limited parking and a bar next door. Jessie Robinson greeted customers as did part-time employees Moffett, who was Mrs. Robinson's daughter, and Stephen Craig, son-in-law. Both are 1965 Noblesville High School graduates.

Within a few years, the floral shop moved to 1249 Conner St., in an 1893 two-story house across the alley from the Craig House and next door to the First Presbyterian Church. The Craigs bought the business from Moffett's mother, father and brother in 1989.

Stephen, a former farmer, and Moffett, a professor of communication at IUPUI, became floral designers through classwork and attended conferences to master the art of floral arranging. They became active members of the Indiana Floral Association, FTD, Teleflora and other nationally known floral organizations and became experts in the industry. Both of the couple's sons, Aaron and Cameron, worked as drivers and in customer service. Later, Cameron went on to become a designer. Their grandson, Jonathan Baker, who they raised, graduated from Noblesville High School in 2022, attends Purdue University and still helps in the shop. Moffett and Stephen Craig once said, "Bring what you can to show others love and joy in a community that is brighter than the most radiant flower."

mon seed signs were all over the place.

Clara interpreted black wooly worms as a sign of cold weather, brown ones as fair weather and white ones as an indication of more snow than usual.

Jeanne Flanders, who also helped with the fog count, observed a black wooly worm that was brown on each end and another that was gold. (I don't know what to make of that since gold isn't on Clara's chart.) My Anonymous Friend spotted three black ones, but they were all in neighboring counties, so I don't know if they should be counted.

Bonnie Blasser saw a brown wooly worm, which she threw in for good measure along with her persimmon seed report.

Bonnie thought the persimmon seed she split looked kind of like feathers. To me, one side resembles a spoon with an extra handle and the other appears to be a spoon with a bite out of it.

None of those images are on Clara's chart. According to Clara, a spoon shape means many snows, knives forecast fair weather and forks predict bitter cold.

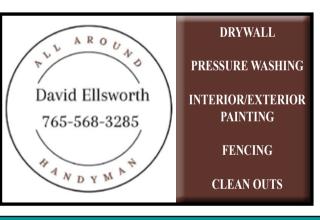

The seed split by my other persimmon seed expert, Steve Owens, showed more traditional images — a spoon and two knives.

My cousin (and Clara's granddaughter,) the Dancing Librarian, suggested that maybe the signs are trying to tell us this year's winter weather will be a "mixed bag."

Hmm. Maybe. Thanks to everyone who contributed to this column!
