TODAY'S VERSE

Job 27:6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

Hamilton Happenings

Be sure to mark your calendars for today and tomorrow, May 31-June 1 for the Noblesville Lions Club's Grillin' on the Square! There'll be pork chops, chicken, dogs and more – all guaranteed to be mouth-watering delicious! On Friday, things get going at 11 a.m. and last until all bellies are full at 8 p.m. And then come back Saturday morning for breakfast, 7 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Three Things You Should Know

Indy 500 fans have until June 17 to renew their tickets for the Month of May in 2025. Fans can renew or upgrade at ims.com/renew, by calling (317) 492-6700 or by visiting the IMS Ticket Office. These are the best prices of the year for renewals and upgrades. Prices will increase when tickets go on sale this fall, and again in 2025 before each event. Fans who didn't attend IMS during this Month of May but are planning to attend in May 2025 can apply for tickets now at the lowest prices of the year. Visit ims.com/apply for more information.

Who would opt for a holiday visit to China? It's not exactly among the world's more glamorous holiday destinations. But if you love pandas it's where you'll find them-- usually. But beware: at least one zoo in China has run out of pandas and has been replacing them with Chow Chow dogs whose fur has been trimmed and dyed black-and-white to resemble the iconic Chinese bears.

Don't dismiss it if your child is afraid of the "monster" in her bedroom; check it out. A North Carolina mom, Ashley Class, didn't believe it when her three-year-old daughter told her that there was a "monster" hiding behind the wall in her bedroom. But when mom and dad heard odd, buzzing noises they called beekeeper Curtis Collins to check it out. Collins discovered the noises were coming from some 50,000 bees hiding inside the walls.

Social Security Matters

Dear Rusty:

Is there a limit on earnings when you're fully retired? Also, should all retirees receive COLA or is there an exception?

Signed: Retired But Wondering

Dear Retired:

Your questions are fairly simple but, nevertheless, often perplexing to those wishing to apply for Social Security, because the SS rules are many (over 2,700 of them) and those about to apply for their benefits may be simply unsure and want to avoid a costly mistake. I'm happy to answer your questions and, hopefully, clarify any uncertainties you have on these topics.

Social Security imposes an earnings limit on anyone who collects Social Security before reaching their full retirement age (FRA). If you haven't yet reached your FRA

(somewhere between 66 and 67, depending on the year you were born), and you continue to work, there is a limit to how much you can earn before they take away some of your benefits. So, the answer to your first question is, yes, there is an earnings limit ($22,320 for 2024) if you haven't yet reached your full retirement age. If the annual earnings limit is exceeded, Social Security will take away some of your benefits ($1 for every $2 you are over the limit, up to the year you attain FRA when the assessment is less). However, if you have already reached your full retirement age the earnings limit no longer applies, and you can earn as much as you like without consequence. And here's a nuance to be aware of: if you work and exceed the earnings limit,

Inside Look at Cataracts

(NAPSI)-By age 80, most people either have cataracts or have had cataract surgery. That's because most cataracts are the result of natural aging. You may not notice that you have a cataract at first. But over time, they can make your vision blurry or hazy, colors fade, you can't see well at night, or you may see double images. The good news is that cataract surgery can restore your sight. With a high success

Looking At Vitamin D Deficiency

(NAPSI)—If you're like most Americans, you take a dietary supplement every day, according to a report from the National Institutes of Health (NIH). Yet, adds the Cleveland Clinic, approximately 35 percent of adults in the United States have vitamin D deficiency. This can be a problem because, doctors at Yale point out, possible symptoms of vitamin D deficiency include:

- Muscle pain
- Bone pain

Westfield Library Launches Summer Program

Foam Party from last summer.

Registration for the Westfield Washington Public Library Summer Reading Program is now open. The eightweek program officially starts on Saturday, June 1 - the same day as the grand-opening of the library's new building. All ages are encouraged to participate.

"We're inviting everyone to spend more time at our new library this summer," says Sara Perry, the Summer Reading Program Coordinator. "Come meet new friends, cool off while reading a book, or participate in one of our hands-on activities."

Summer programming will kick off on June 1 with Feller Express' three life-size dinosaurs and traditional Mexican dance by Fuego Nuevo USA Ballet Folklorica de Indiana. A host of animal programs and science experiments are also planned for later dates as well as visits from musician Jim Gill, storyteller Professor Watermelon, and magician Daniel Lusk.

And back by popular demand, the library will host the everpopular Whalemobile, a 43-foot-long model of a humpback whale as well as three Foam Parties. Space is limited for all programs and registration is required. Event registration can be found on the library's event page.

More than 3,000 Westfield residents kids, teens, and adults - participated in last year's Summer Reading Program. They read a total of 2,875,881 minutes. This year's goal is three million minutes.

"We hope to see everyone at the library this summer," says Sheryl Sollars, executive director of the Westfield Washington Public Library. "I think everyone will find a new favorite spot to sit and read in our new building. Plus, reading over the summer helps keep young minds sharp."

Registration for the Summer Reading

Program can be found at https://wwpl. beanstack.org.

Anyone who reads (or listens to) at least 40 hours between June 1 and July 31 will be entered into a drawing for the grand prize which includes an Adventures in Indiana gift basket with over $350 in restaurant gift cards and familyfriendly experiences.

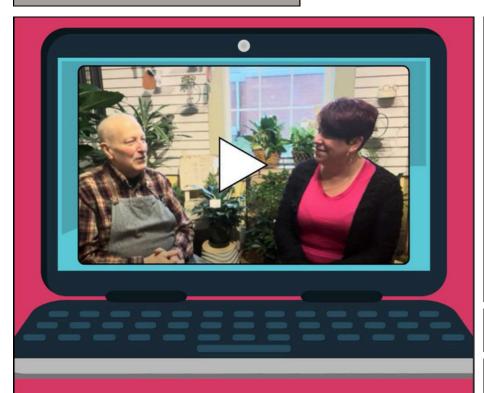

Prizes will also be distributed to participants throughout the program when they hit specific reading milestones. Special thanks to the Westfield Library Foundation and Friends of the Westfield Library for their financial support.

and have some benefits withheld as a result, when you reach your FRA, you will get time credit for any months you didn't get benefits, which will result in your monthly amount being a bit higher after your FRA.

Regarding COLA (Cost of Living Adjustment), everyone, without exception, who has earned a Social Security benefit and reached eligibility age (62) receives the annual COLA increase whether they are already collecting their benefits or not. If you're not yet collecting, the COLA is added to your "primary insurance amount" or "PIA," on which your benefit will be based when you claim. If you are already collecting SS, COLA will be added to your gross monthly SS benefit amount. However, since there was a $9.80 increase in the 2024 Medicare Part B premium, and since the Part B premium is taken from everyone's SS benefit payment, Social Security recipients enrolled in Medicare Part B will not see the full 3.2% COLA in their net monthly Social the COLA increase, but no one enrolled in Medicare Part B will get the full COLA increase in their net SS payment because some of the COLA increase is used to pay their increased Medicare premium.

- Increased sensitivity to pain
- A tingly, "pins-andneedles" sensation in the hands or feet
- Muscle weakness in body parts near the trunk of the body, such as the upper arms or thighs
- · Waddling while walking, due to muscle weakness in the hips or legs
- A history of broken bones
- Muscle twitches or tremors
- Muscle spasms
- Bowed legs (when the deficiency is severe)

Why Doctors Are Also Keen on K

As the NIH also explains, vitamins D and K together "play a central role in calcium metabolism. Vitamin D promotes the production of vitamin K-dependent proteins, which require vitamin K to function properly. Evidence supports the notion that supplementation [with both] vitamins D and K might be more effective than the consumption of either alone for bone and cardiovascular health."

The Good News and the Bad News

Commonly referred to as the "sunshine vitamin," D3 can be naturally produced in the body following exposure to the sunbut not everyone can or even should spend a lot of time exposed to the sun's ultraviolet rays, which can cause premature aging, cancer and other problems.

Foods such as fish, beef, liver, eggs and cheese naturally contain vitamin D3, but not everyone can or should eat enough of those foods.

Explains registered dietitian Ryan Turner: "It can be hard to get enough D3 through food."

The Better News Fortunately, high quality D3+K2 supplements are available from a family-owned business that provides premium, scientifically proven fitness and wellness products. What's more, these pills contain calcium. According to Johns Hopkins Medical School, taking these nutrients together reduces your risk of hyperparathyroidism, osteoporosis and fractured bones.

The firm's mission is to help individuals achieve their health and fitness goals through clean and effective supplements with an emphasis on transparency, quality, and information to empower customers. Backed by science and empowered by nature, the company, EarthNutri, is committed to transparency and ensuring that only the most potent and pure ingredients make it into your hands. Its D3+K2 supplement is an excellent alternative way to get sunshine vitamin without sunburn, ultraviolet radiation, lactose or cholesterol.

With EarthNutri, what you see is what you get: Transparent, natural and powerful because the power is in the premium, U.S.sourced ingredients. When you choose vitamins that provide both purity and potency, you can have peace of mind knowing you've done much to help your health.

rate of more than 90 percent, cataract surgery enables people to see better after their cataract is removed.

Here are the top six things ophthalmologistsphysicians who specialize in medical and surgical eye care want you to know about cataracts:

1. Cataracts can be removed with surgery.

Surgery is the only way to cure cataracts. Early on, you may be able to cope with reduced vision from cataracts by using brighter lights, wearing anti-glare sunglasses, or using magnifying lenses for reading. But if cataracts start getting in the way of everyday activities such as reading, driving, or watching TV, an ophthalmologist will need to remove the clouded natural lens and replace it with an artificial lens, also called an intraocular lens (or IOL), to correct blurry vision.

2. You can slow development of early cataracts. You can take steps to protect your eyes from cataracts. Using 100% UV blocking sunglasses, quitting smoking, maintaining control over high blood sugar, and eating a healthy diet can help prevent cataracts.

3. People with diabetes are more likely to get cataracts. Natural aging is the most common cause of cataracts, but some people are at higher risk for cataracts than others. People who have diabetes with high blood sugar levels can get cataracts quicker and at a younger age than those with normal blood sugar levels. Improving glucose levels may help delay cataracts.

4. Eye color affects your risk of developing cataracts. Studies show that people with dark brown eyes have a higher risk of developing cataracts than people with lighter eyes. However, UV light is a known contributor to cataract development no matter what color your eyes are. Wearing sunglasses whenever outdoors is recommended for everyone.

5.Treating cataracts may decrease your risk of dementia.

Though the link between eye health and dementia is unclear, recent studies suggest people who had cataract surgery were 30 percent less likely to develop dementia.

6. You may eventually need a follow-up procedure. Some people will again develop hazy vision years after cataract surgery. This is usually because the lens capsule has become cloudy. The capsule is the part of your eye that holds the IOL in place. Your ophthalmologist can use a laser to open the cloudy capsule and restore clear vision, a procedure called a capsulotomy.

Regular eye exams are important to maintaining your best vision, even after cataract surgery. The American Academy of Ophthalmology recommends scheduling a visit to the ophthalmologist every year after cataract surgery if you're older than 65, or every two years if under 65.

Can't Afford an Eye Exam? EyeCare America® Can Help. For individuals age 65 or older who are concerned about their risk of eye disease and/or the cost of an eye exam, you may be eligible for a medical eye exam, often at no out-of-pocket cost, through the American Academy of Ophthalmology's EyeCare America® program. This public service program matches volunteer ophthalmologists with eligible patients in need of eye care across the United States. To see if you or a loved one qualifies, visit www.aaoinfo. com/ECApatient to determine your eligibility.

"The American Academy of Ophthalmology's EyeCare America® program matches ophthalmologists with eligible patients over 65 in need of eye care, often at no out-ofpocket cost."

Center for Performing Arts Sets Season Schedule

Stars from Hamilton, classical icons, classic rock, world music and even a bit of Taylor Swift are on the schedule for the Center for the Performing Arts' 2024-25 Center Presents Season, presented in partnership with Allied Solutions.

The Center's 14th season will kick off in August with more than 60 events already booked and more on the way, as well as new, custom-designed sound and lighting systems in the Palladium concert

"The technology has advanced so much since we opened," said Jeffrey C. McDermott, the Center's President/CEO. "Our patrons and artists expect and deserve a state-of-the-art experience, and we will continue to provide that."

The entire season is on sale now through subscription packages. Several performances also are on sale individually now, and the rest will be available in August.

New faces on the schedule include Renée Elise Goldsberry and Leslie Odom Jr., both Tony and Grammy winners for their roles in Hamilton on Broadway. Odom also will deliver one of the season's four free matinee performances for local school groups.

Other first-timers include the Average White Band in conjunction with Carmel Jazz Fest, YouTube stars the Piano Guys, longtime sideman Mac McAnally, arena-rock heroes Grand Funk Railroad, Micky Dolenz of the Monkees, and Grammy-winning music producer Don Was with his Pan Detroit Ensemble of top Motor City jazz players. Fans of country-fried guitar picking will enjoy Noblesville native Steve Wariner and bluegrass-rockabilly icon Marty Stuart with his Fabulous Superlatives.

Returning favorites include Ben Folds, classical piano star Lang Lang, legendary violinist Itzhak Perlman, jazz/R&B saxophonist Boney James, the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra with Wynton Marsalis, popsoul legend Dionne Warwick, and Michael Feinstein, the Center's artistic director, with the Indianapolis Chamber Orchestra.

For classic rock fans, alongside standard tributes to artists such as David Bowie and Queen are less conventional approaches to the genre, including Yesterday and Today, an interactive Beatles experience in which the audience chooses the songs. And if you're looking for Taylor Swift, you can hear her songs interpreted by the innovative Vitamin String Quartet, known for its Bridgerton soundtrack work.

The Holiday Series includes the annual tradition of Dave Koz & Friends, a first-time visit from swing revivalists Cherry Poppin' Daddies, and return visits from Canadian Brass, the Four Phantoms, Jane Lynch and Jon McLaughlin.

International artists on the calendar include Colombian salsa band Grupo Niche, Indian tabla master Zakir Hussain with dulcimer player Rahul Sharma, and Heart of Afghanistan featuring the Fanoos Ensemble, representing a musical tradition banned from public performance under the current regime in their home

In addition to the music, the schedule includes the domestic comedy of #IMOMSOHARD, spooky tales with Haunted Objects Live and witty observations from Peter Sagal, host of NPR's Wait Wait ... Don't Tell Me!

Subscription packages are on sale now for the Classical Series, the Drewry Simmons Vornehm Jazz Series and the Hoosier Village & The Barrington of Carmel Songbook Series, with benefits including discounts up to 20 percent off the regular ticket price. Another option is a Create Your Own subscription package, which offers similar perks for the purchase of any four or more events from the 2024-2025 Center Presents schedule. Subscribers also are eligible for immediate purchase access to the entire 2024-2025 Center Presents Season and presale access to new events added throughout the season.

Visit TheCenterPresents.or g/SubscribeNow for more information on subscription packages and benefits. Purchases can be made online at g, by phone at (317) 843-3800 or toll-free

Micky Dolenz

Dionne Warwick

(877) 909-2787, or in person at the Palladium's Fifth Third Bank Box Office, 1 Carter Green, Carmel.

Tickets are on sale now for some individual events early in the season, including the annual Songbook Academy in Concert, Average White Band, Jerome Collins (Straight No Chaser), rising jazz star Veronica Swift, Backstreet Boy Nick Carter, Leonid & Friends' tribute to Chicago, crossover violinist

Damien Escobar and #IMOMSOHARD.

Other performances will go on sale individually Aug. 2. Free tickets for the United States Army Field Band & Soldiers' Chorus will be available in the spring.

Hamilton County Express to Update Fleet This Fall

Hamilton County Express, a vital lifeline for individuals with disabilities, seniors, and the economically disadvantaged, will add six new minivans to its fleet this fall. IndyGo, the largest public transportation provider in the state of Indiana, has awarded Hamilton County with a grant worth $453,000.

"This grant marks a significant milestone in enhancing public transportation accessibility in Hamilton County," says Roscoe Brown, Director of Transportation at Janus Developmental Services, which operates Hamilton County Express. "It's a significant step toward independence for people with limitations, ensuring they can access their community effectively, even without owning a car."

The grant award will facilitate the acquisition of six low floor minivans that will be accessible for individuals with disabilities (including wheelchair users). The smaller vehicles will also provide easier navigation through city streets and parking lots than the larger buses operated by HCE.

The IndyGo grant award is funded by the Federal Transit Administration and comes with favorable terms, including an increased federal match percentage from 80% to 85% for the vehicles, due to the level of federal funding. Additional equipment funded includes interior vehicle security camera systems that will require a 20% local match.

Delivery of the new vehicles is expected in early fall.

The Hamilton County commissioners and councilors, the City of Fishers, Fishers' Disability Advisory Council, and Invest Hamilton County, along with the county's grant administrator, have been working closely with Hamilton County

Express in recent months to enhance public transportation services in the county. "Public transportation creates economic development, improved infrastructure, and gives mobility to people who don't have it," says Commissioner Mark Heirbrandt. "As our community continues to grow, the need for accessible public transportation becomes increasingly apparent."

Hamilton County Express operates Monday through Friday from 6:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. and Saturdays from 7:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. A one-way ticket is three dollars. For more information or to make a trip request, residents can call (317) 773-2688 or visit HCE's website.

Cicero Kiwanis Provide Every Heights Elementary Student A Free Book

One young student came up to the table displaying a group of books chosen by elementary school Media Specialist Karen Jones and said, "I don't have any money to pay for a book." Cicero Kiwanis Club President Todd Clevenger replied," You don't need any money. These books are free, so chose any one you want." She looked up with a smile on her face and said, "Really, I've never had a book of my very

Every child deserves the joy of diving into a world of imagination through books. Yet, many young minds lack access to this magical journey because of financial constraints. Research shows that just the presence of books in the home improves educational outcomes. Books are critical and access to those resources is one of the greatest contributors to education equality.

Despite all this, books are scarce to many students, meaning they are at a disadvantage from the start. The Kiwanis Club of Cicero wants to close that gap and promote a love a reading by providing free books through its Books For a Bright Future initiative. "Through this program, students are able to choose a free, age-appropriate book at the school book fair," explained Clevenger. "The goal of our Books For a Bright Future program is to create a love of reading and foster education and literacy among young students." With help from a grant awarded by the Kiwanis Children's Fund, the Cicero Kiwanis purchased more than 800 books that were distributed during the week-long book fair.

"The Book Fair was a huge success!" Jones said. "Thank you to the Kiwanis for all the volunteer help and guest readers. The kids iust loved their new books and those who would not have gotten books were so surprised that they too could get a book at the book fair!! You made the book fair a special occasion for all our students. We gave out 809 books. We can't thank the Kiwanis enough."

The Primary goal of the Cicero Kiwanis Books For a Bright Future program is to raise funds to purchase and distribute ageappropriate books to every elementary school within the Heights School District. The club aims to ensure that every child has the opportunity to build their own personal library at home, encouraging them to read, explore and expand their knowledge.

"I was truly amazed at the excitement, joy and smiles we saw simply by providing these students with a book of their own," Clevenger said. "But it went further than that. Teachers and administrators have reached out expressing their gratitude and appreciation for what the Cicero Kiwanis Club is doing. Here is just one example: Good afternoon! I am a kindergarten teacher at Hamilton Heights. I wanted to say thank you for the books Kiwanis provided to my students at the spring book fair. Usually there are tears as some students don't get books and this year that didn't happen. My students were so excited to show me the books they picked and got to keep forever. I appreciate all you have done!"

In addition to the annual book fair, Cicero Kiwanis is also working to help stock the summer bookmobile that travels throughout the district during the summer months to keep kids engaged in reading throughout summer break. The annual fundraising goal for this program is $10,000 and the Cicero Kiwanis welcome both individual donations and corporate sponsorships. Carmel Waterpark Sets Events for Adults Only

The fun doesn't stop at closing time! Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation (CCPR) is hosting adults-only, after-hours Monon Mixers at The Waterpark in Carmel, 1195 Central Park Dr.

Monon Mixers will be held throughout the summer on June 7, June 21, July 5, July 19, and August 2. These events are for adults over the age of 21 and will take place from 8-10 p.m.

Participants can look forward to even more fun with themed events, including Glow Party (June 7), Christmas in July (July 5), and Swiftie Night (August 2). Dressing for each night's theme is encouraged, but not required.

Each event costs $25 per person and includes access to all The Waterpark's amenities, including The Wall®, plunge slides, and FlowRider® surf simulator, as well as planned activities throughout the night like Aqua Zumba® and log rolling.

New this year, Monon Mixer participants can reserve cabanas for the event for an additional $45.

Registered participants will receive an email one week prior to the event with details and rental information. Cabana rentals will be available on a firstcome, first-served basis.

Alcoholic beverages will be available for purchase from a variety of local vendors, in addition to concessions (limited menu). The Waterpark staff reminds guests to please drink responsibly. Guests are welcome to bring food and beverages, glass and alcohol are prohibited.

In case of inclement weather, guests will be automatically enrolled in the next Monon Mixer available. If there is inclement weather on the day of the final Monon Mixer (August 2), a refund will be issued.

Space is limited and pre-registration is required.

Library Celebrates Grand Opening

The new second-floor space is open to the public.

Hamilton East Public Library has good news to share - the grand opening of its newly renovated Crossroads Discovery Center, a second-floor space at the Noblesville Library, formerly known as the Indiana Room.

A grand opening celebration will take place on Saturday, June 8 from 2:00 -4:00 pm, where attendees will have the opportunity to experience new interactive exhibits on local history and beginning genealogy research, preview new equipment to digitize and preserve photos and memories, and learn about the complete print and digital collection to research family members wherever they may roam.

"The Crossroads Discovery Center reimagines genealogy and local history services at the library," says HEPL's Director of Experiential Learning, Katelyn Coyne. "We're celebrating the return of our Indiana Room collection of reference and circulating materials, and bringing new technology and interactive experiences to our patrons. Come discover your story!"

The CRDC is proud to offer new equipment for preserving family histories for future generations, rake advantage of available scanners which include: overhead, flatbed, and book cradle. Learn to convert old media to digital formats including: VHS, cassette, Super 8, 8mm, photo negatives, slides, DVD/CD, floppy disk. Utilize a recording booth to focus on creating oral histories with: microphones, pop filters, headphones, USB audio box, and recording software.

Finalize a project with the new book binding machine, and more!

In 2023, renovations to transform this library space began, becoming yet another expansion of HEPL's resources as they continue to improve access and expand possibilities. Through this, the Indiana Room was revamped into a transformative space, which not only includes the original collection but now offers so much more. The Crossroads Discovery Center is ready for visitors and will bring storytelling and genealogy together. With new equipment made available, the CRDC is making it easier than ever to connect the people of Hamilton County to their community and their personal histories.
