TODAY'S VERSE

Isaiah 59:19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun.
When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

Hamilton Happenings

The need for blood is always critical, but even more so it seems each summer. So the American Red Cross has scheduled a number of blood drives coming up. They are:

June 22: 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.,
Fishers YMCA, 9012 E. 126th
St.

June 24: Noon - 4 p.m.,
Bethlehem Lutheran Church,
1484 W. Main, Carmel

June 24: 1 p.m. - 6 p.m., Pennington Park Church,
13222 E 126th St., Fishers

June 27: Noon - 5 p.m.,
Harley-Davidson, 12400
Reynolds Dr., Fishers

June 28: 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.,
IU Health North Hospital,
11700 N Meridian St.

Three Things You Should Know

1 Where are Indiana's most coveted retirement destination?
According to our friends at MarketBeat.com, Geist, Zionsville, Carmel and the Meridian-Kessler area in Indianapolis top the list.
And nationally, all are in the top 120. What's the top spot in the U.S.? Wailea in Hawaii.

2 Speaking of surveys, Nashville in Brown County, the Mass Ave area of Indianapolis and downtown Bloomington were rated the three best spots in Indiana for alfresco dining. That tidbit came from DatingAdvice.com as they ranked the best spots for this simple yet profound pleasure. In the U.S., the historic district of beautiful Savannah, Ga. came in first and was followed by the West Village in NYC.

3 Indiana is set to receive $18 million as part of a settlement Attorney General Todd Rokita reached with pharmaceutical giant Johnson & Johnson. The payout aims to resolve allegations of deceptive advertising in the company's marketing of baby powder and body powder products that contain the mineral talc. Under the consent judgment, Johnson & Johnson has agreed to permanently cease the manufacturing, marketing, promotion, sale, and distribution of all baby and body powder products and cosmetic powder products that contain talcum powder - either directly, or indirectly through any third party.

About Social Security's "guaranteed" annual cost-of-living adjustment (COLA)

Dear Rusty:
I've been reading a lot lately about speculation on what next year's benefit increase will be, and it seems like most of the experts are suggesting a range of 2.5% to 3%. My neighbor says don't worry about it, because there will always be some level of increase come January. It's guaranteed, right?

Signed:
Retired But Questioning

Dear Retired: You've brought up a common belief about the annual Social Security COLA, one that we hear often. Let's start with some background. Each year's COLA results from comparing the third quarter average Consumer Price Index (CPI-W) each year to the same average from the preceding year. The result of dividing the current year's average by the previous year's average produces the COLA for the following year. For 2024's adjustment, the 2023 third-quarter average was 301.2 and the comparable figure for 2022 was 291.9, producing the 3.2% benefit addition.

It's not always the case that the year-to-year CPI calculation produces a positive result, as was the case three times so far this century. As recently as 2016, for example, the 2015 third-quarter average was 233.3 and the comparable figure for 2014 was 234.2, producing a negative change. Fortunately for beneficiaries, Social Security law prohibits a negative COLA, so the negative result was ruled out and the COLA for 2016 was zero.

So, the rumor that there will always be a benefit increase in January is untrue, although having only three zero COLA years since the start of automated adjustments in 1974 leads folks to assume there will always be a boost in the new year. The size of the adjustment fluctuates with economic cycles and has ranged from a high of 14.3 percent in 1980 to 0.3% in 2017 (excluding, of course, the zero years). Incidentally, the historical

Grants Support Arts Programming for Older Adults

The Indiana Arts Commission recently announced that nine arts organizations have received training and grant funding through Lifelong Arts for Arts Organizations, a program that promotes arts and creativity services for adults ages 65 and older. Nine organizations from around the state will each receive $20,000 to host programming for older adults, supported by the Indiana Arts Commission in partnership with the Family and Social Services Administration, and made possible by a grant provided by the National Assembly of State Arts Agencies in partnership with E.A. Michelson Philanthropy.

Group Launches Active People Healthy Hamilton County Campaign

The Friends of Hamilton County Parks (FHCP) Foundation is joining the CDC in their nationwide initiative to get 27 million people more physically active by 2027. The initiative is based on a foundation of inclusion and health equity where physical activity is a universal social norm regardless of age, race, income, socio-economic status, disability status, and geographic location. FHCP challenged each Hamilton County municipality to propose a project that will align with the APHHC criteria and FHCP's mission to create recreational amenities and/or "active access" to parks and green space to get people out and moving to enjoy their recreational resources. Each Hamilton County city or town will launch the campaign with a proclamation or resolution.

opportunity to vote for their favorite project. A $50,000 grant toward the chosen project will be announced at a culminating event hosted by FHCP at the Lucas Mansion in April of 2025.

"We're thrilled to be the collaborative platform to bring our municipalities together in making Hamilton County an even healthier place to play! Recreation is one of the best medicines for both physical and mental health," said Bruce Snyder, President and a founding member of FHCP.

To stay update on the APHHC Project visit: <https://www.friendsofhamiltoncountyparks.org/annual-sustaining/> Founded in 2006, the Friends of Hamilton County Parks, Inc. FHCP accomplishes this by actively seeking

"This initiative aligns very well with our board's plan to fill the gaps in needed recreational resources throughout Hamilton County," April Williams, Executive Director of FHCP, said.

FHCP serves the greater Hamilton County by advocating for parks and recreational resources. FHCP believes APHHC will create momentum throughout Hamilton County and encourage people to think about the resources around them. Communities will also have an

"We are proud to deepen our work in creative aging thanks to the partnership of the National Assembly of State Arts Agencies, Aroha Philanthropies, and the Family and Social Services Administration," said Miah Michaelson, IAC Executive Director. "Meaningful, professional arts experiences are a proven tool to improve the psychological, physical, and emotional health of older adults, and it is a privilege to work with arts organizations to provide these benefits to Hoosiers."

The organizations receiving funding, and the projects they will support, include:

- The Honeywell Foundation, Inc. (Wabash, IN) - Senior Perspectives: Observational Art Class
- libada Dance Company (Indianapolis, IN) - Seasoned Feet
- South Shore Arts (Munster, IN) - Every Generation: Without Limitations
- Art Barn School of Art, Inc. (Valparaiso, IN) - Art Within Reach: Drawing and Creative Watercolor
- Fort Wayne Dance Collective, Inc. (Fort Wayne, IN) - Apple City Dance Project
- Civic Theatre of Greater Lafayette, Inc. (Lafayette, IN) - Playback: Moving Through Our Memories
- Heartland Sings Inc. (Fort Wayne, IN) - Timeless Tunes for All Singers
- ArtMix Inc. (Indianapolis, IN) - Narrating with Colors
- The Jack & Shirley Lubeznik Center for the Arts (Michigan City, IN)

- 2D Art and Design
Fort Wayne Dance Collective will be working with the Renaissance Pointe YMCA on the Apple City Dance Project, which will provide 8-week dance sessions designed specifically for adults ages 55 and up. Each dance session will be focused on creating a welcoming and fun environment where participants will learn a variety of basic dance steps in different styles, while having input on music selection, and the chance to work as a group to create movement inspired by their lives.

ArtMix's program, "Narrating with Colors", is an introductory painting class designed to combat social isolation and build community for aging adults with and without disabilities. Throughout the eight-week session, attendees will learn foundational painting skills while engaging in weekly group discussions about the story of their life. The culmination of the class will be a collaborative mural that weaves the artists' stories together. Participating organizations were selected through an application and panel process and have attended three days of training hosted by Lifetime Arts, a national leader in best practices of creative aging.

Lifelong Arts for Arts Organizations is an expansion of the IAC's portfolio of opportunities for the state's older adults. The program joins existing programs for artists and aging services providers in partnership with the Indiana Family and Social Services Administration.

special rates and programs for older adults. Hitting the track or joining a group fitness class are easy ways to socialize while getting some exercise. The discounted membership is also an investment since staying fit is important for physical and mental health.

Enjoy Early Dinner Deals

You can still enjoy dining out occasionally, especially if you take advantage of lower-cost meals designed with older adults in mind. Many specials are for meals earlier in the day, which is consistent with a growing trend toward earlier dining. According to Yelp, the number of people eating from 4-6 p.m. has grown 9% (up to 26% from 17% in 2019). Eating earlier promotes better digestion, and earlier meals are often lighter portions for smaller appetites. For example, Cracker Barrel's Early Dinner Deals feature smaller portions served from 4-6 p.m. on weekdays. Menu items include a variety of homestyle favorites like chicken n' dumplings, meatloaf, catfish and more.

Check Out the Library

Your local library is filled with hours of free entertainment, but it's not just the kind you'll find from getting a library card. You can undoubtedly find a book that covers any genre or interest you can name, but most local libraries also offer programming tailored to special interests and the sessions are typically offered for free or at a low cost. It's an easy, affordable way to pick up a new skill, meet a favorite author, learn about a topic that intrigues you and more. Other resources to explore include your library's DVD collection and internet access if you don't have a computer at home.

Nurture a Garden

Tending a garden may seem like a seasonal activity, but you can make it a year-round hobby. Researching and planning is a good way to carry your gardening enthusiasm into the cooler months and you can start seedlings indoors to extend your growing season. While you're digging into this low-cost pastime, remember the results of your efforts, such as fresh fruits and veggies, can help cut your grocery costs, too.

Mind Your Money with DIY

Saving money at the grocery store is just one way you can make DIY projects work for you. There are dozens of other examples of ways you can put your skills and interests to use by passing time doing something you enjoy while benefiting your bank account. If you like to tinker with cars, figure out what repairs you can handle yourself and avoid hefty service fees. Crafting and sewing might mean you have ready-made gifts for special occasions and a way to repair or repurpose damaged clothing instead of discarding it.

Ask About Discounts

You may be surprised by how many places offer discounts for older adults that they don't readily advertise. In some cases, you'll find the information on their website or signage, but other times, you may find it easier to just ask. When you're booking an appointment or checking out, inquire about discounts for older adults, including any restrictions, age requirements, the amount of the discount and other pertinent details. Sometimes the discounts are offered on certain days or for specific services, or they may require you to join a loyalty club to access the discounts. When dining out, many restaurants offer a variety of loyalty perks. Rewards members at Cracker Barrel can earn points, or "Pegs," on qualifying restaurant and retail purchases. Members can also take advantage of bonus birthday, anniversary and surprise rewards throughout the year.

County Accepting Not-for-Profit Grant Applications

The Hamilton County Commissioners and Councilors are now accepting grant applications from Hamilton County not-for-profits for funding in 2025. The Grant Program is intended to furnish funding to organizations that provide services in furtherance of County goals and without the providing of these services the County may need to consider the development of such programing.

Awards are provided based on application score and funding available. Any funds awarded must be supported by other funding sources or documented in-kind services and may only be distributed to Hamilton County based organizations.

Complete information including eligibility criteria can be found on the application. <https://www.hamiltoncounty.in.gov/1682/Non-profit-Grant-Application>

Decommits Worked Out Well for Purdue Boiler Basketball

KENNY THOMPSON
Columnist

Would Purdue have reached the NCAA men's basketball championship game for the first time since 1969 with this trio alongside guard Fletcher Loyer and forward Trey Kaufman-Renn?

Hunter Dickinson at center. Jameel Brown at point guard. Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn at guard/small forward.

Dickinson, Brown and Gibbs-Lawhorn were either committed to Purdue or were coach Matt Painter's No. 1 target during their recruitment over the past four years.

Instead, Purdue wound up with Zach Edey, Braden Smith and Lance Jones. If only all consolation prizes turned out to be so valuable.

Purdue's recent good fortune with decommitments began in March 2015 when Indianapolis Tech guard C.J. Walker backed out of his pledge. In the aftermath, disgruntled former Purdue point guard Ronnie Johnson celebrated the decommitment, stating on Twitter that "CJ Walker has too much sauce to his game. Great decision."

Five months later, four-star guard Carsen Edwards of Humble, Texas, accepted the scholarship vacated by Walker. The same Carsen Edwards who scored 1,920 points in three seasons. The same Edwards who made an NCAA tournament record 28 3-pointers and averaged nearly 35 points a game while leading Purdue to within a second of a 2019 Final Four berth.

Who would Boilermaker fans rather have had wear gold and black?

That's why the unexpected release of five-star forward Kanon Catchings from his national letter of intent last week by Painter could end up working out for the Boilermakers.

The 7-2 Dickinson surprised Purdue when he chose Michigan, where he lived up to his four-star rating as a two-time first-team All-Big Ten selection. Dickinson abandoned the Wolverines after three seasons for a bigger paycheck at Kansas. There, he earned first-team All-Big 12 honors, but the Jayhawks were booted by Gonzaga in the second round of the 2024 NCAA tournament.

Painter's Plan B for the 2020 class, 7-1 Ryan Kalkbrenner, went to Creighton, where he's had an excellent career. Plan C, 6-8 forward Ben Carlson, struggled for two seasons at Wisconsin before playing his final two seasons at Utah.

Plan D ended up becoming a two-time National Player of the Year and Purdue's all-time leading scorer and rebounder.

Brown decommitted from Purdue in 2022 shortly after his primary recruiter, Micah Shrewsbury, took the Penn State head coaching position. In 41 games at Penn State, Brown has averaged three points.

When Painter searched for a guard to replace Brown, he discovered a game tape of an undersized Westfield guard, Braden Smith. That's how the Purdue and Big Ten single-season assists record holder ended up in West Lafayette.

Purdue fans first became aware of Gibbs-Lawhorn during his freshman season at local McCutcheon High School. After one season, Gibbs-Lawhorn moved on to prep schools in Utah and Florida but he still seemed to be a priority recruit for Purdue.

After committing to the Boilermakers in Dec. 2021, Gibbs-Lawhorn backed out of his pledge the following August. Painter did not fill that scholarship when national signing day came in November, leaving a spot available for a potential transfer.

That transfer, guard Lance Jones of Southern Illinois, became the missing piece for a Purdue team coming off an embarrassing NCAA tournament loss to Fairleigh Dickenson. Jones became Purdue's third-leading scorer (11.7), and his 3-pointer against Tennessee knocked down the door to that elusive Final Four berth.

In the long run, maybe Catchings wouldn't be the star of this Purdue freshman class. At the same time Catchings exited, 7-3 center Daniel Jacobsen was impressive while helping Team USA's U18 National Team win the gold medal at the FIBA Americup in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Somehow just a second-team Americup All-Star Five selection, Jacobsen set an American record with 19 blocked shots over six games. The previous record-holder was Indiana Pacers center Myles Turner, who had 18 in 2014.

In just 16 minutes a game, Jacobsen averaged 9.2 points and 7 rebounds. He shot nearly 65 percent from the field (22 of 34) and was 11 of 14 (.786) at the free throw line.

With or without Catchings, expectations remain high for the reigning NCAA runners-up. The Athletic has Purdue ranked 13th, the highest Big Ten team on author CJ Moore's ratings.

"It's going to be difficult to replace Edey, but Matt Painter won a lot of basketball games before Edey showed up and he'll continue to do so," Moore writes. "Painter has a really good core returning, led by Smith, who became a killer in pick-and-roll last season as both a scorer and distributor. If you asked college coaches to rank the best point guards in the country, he'd be near the top."

"Purdue got a head start on what life without Edey would be like last summer when it went on a foreign tour without him and Kaufman-Renn led the team in scoring. Painter also has three centers on the bench who could be next in line as dominant low-post scorers. The 7-foot-2 Will Berg has been learning behind Edey the last two years, and then Painter signed two centers in Daniel Jacobsen and Raleigh Burgess. Jacobsen was a standout ... at the tryouts for the U.S. U-18 team. When I asked two coaches there who stood out, both mentioned Jacobsen, with one saying he'll eventually be a star. He's 7-3, skilled and playing at Purdue, so odds are in his favor."

The Boilermakers' schedule should once again prepare them well for Big Ten play. The Athletic's No. 1 preseason team, Alabama, comes to Mackey Arena on Nov. 15 for the start of a two-game home and home series.

Purdue also plays No. 11 Texas A&M in this year's Indy Classic at Gainbridge Fieldhouse on Dec. 14. In between Alabama and Texas A&M is a trip to No. 14 Marquette on Nov. 19.

Michigan at No. 17 is the second-highest conference team, followed by Indiana (19th) and Illinois (20th).

"It's a huge year for (coach Mike) Woodson," Moore writes. "Based on this class, Indiana's donors are coming through financially, but that could quickly change if results don't follow."

Noteworthy
Purdue football has the new Big Ten's second-most difficult schedule, according to Bill Bender of The Sporting News.

Bender's criteria included the number of ranked teams from The Sporting News' preseason top 25 on the schedule. Purdue will play three top five teams - Ohio State, Penn State and Notre Dame - but the Nittany Lions and Fighting Irish come to Ross-Ade Stadium.

"Wisconsin and Nebraska are unranked for now, but Purdue faces those teams on back-to-back weeks in late September," Bender writes. "This just isn't a friendly schedule for second-year coach Ryan Walters."

Michigan's schedule is rated the Big Ten's toughest. Indiana and Oregon tied for the 12th most difficult schedule. The Hoosiers also have to play at Ohio State but host Michigan and Washington. ...

Purdue cornerback Nyland Green, formerly of Georgia, was ranked among the top incoming Big Ten transfers by CBSSports.com writer Tom Fornelli.

"The defensive scheme Ryan Walters brought to Purdue puts a lot on the plates of its corners, who are often left alone in man coverage," Fornelli writes. "For that reason alone, Nyland Green will have a huge impact on Purdue's 2024 season. If the Georgia transfer can perform at a level matching his ranking out of high school (Green was the No. 2 CB in the 2021 class), it will go a long way in helping the Boilermakers defense improve significantly this season."

New Indiana quarterback Kurtis Rourke also made Fornelli's list.

"New coach Curt Cignetti has done excellent work in the transfer portal this offseason, but none of it matters if the QB doesn't work out," Fornelli writes. "Luckily for the Hoosiers, Rourke is a good bet to work out, as he was a highly productive player for one of the MAC's best programs at Ohio." ...

Former Purdue volleyball standout Annie Drews will compete in her second Olympics Games this summer in Paris.

Drews is one of eight returning players from the United States' 2020 gold medal-winning squad in Tokyo.

Kenny Thompson is the former sports editor for the Lafayette Journal & Courier and an award-winning journalist. He has covered Purdue athletics for many years.
