Hamilton Happenings

The inaugural Mayor's Grand Gala in Westfield is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 5, at Grand Park Sports Campus. "This gala presents a unique opportunity for our residents and business owners to come together, celebrate our shared vision, and contribute to the continued growth of our city," Mayor Scott Willis said. On tap are a DJ, silent and live auctions and food from a variety of Westfield restaurants. The Gala supports the efforts of not-for-profit partnerships through the Advancing Westfield Foundation. Tickets start at $200 and are available at westfieldgrandgala.com.

Three Things You Should Know

1 Our offices will be closed on Thursday and Friday for the July 4 holiday. That also means there won't be a Friday edition of your favorite newspaper! We want to give our hard-working employees some time off to celebrate this great nation on her 248th birthday!

2 Talk about your unexplained mysteries, this one is happening in real life – yet again – and it's eerier than the movie with the title "Monolith." The film is about a conspiracy theory; it has a beginning, a middle and an end. No one seems to have an "ending" or an explanation for the re-appearance recently of a mysterious monolith that suddenly showed up a few miles north of Las Vegas. Back in 2020 a similarly baffling structure suddenly appeared, first in Utah and then in Romania, California, New Mexico and in downtown Las Vegas.

3 Anna Lee Dozier liked the vase she saw at a Maryland thrift store and couldn't resist buying it. It was a no-brainer as the vase was on sale for just $3.99. In an interview on WUSA-TV she said, "it looked old-ish, but I thought maybe 20, 30 years old and some kind of tourist reproduction thing so I brought it home." As it turned out, the Mexican vase dates back some 2,000 years and is likely to be worth for more than $100,000.

The Grand and Glorious 4th of 1898

PAULA DUNN
From Time to Thyme

When I was looking for a subject for a Fourth of July column that I hadn't already covered, I ran across an article in an old

Hamilton County Ledger that described the Independence Day festivities of 1898.

I'd briefly mentioned that celebration a few years ago when I wrote about the Spanish-American War, but because I didn't go into great detail about it then and because it was such a big affair, I decided the "Grand and Glorious 4th" of 1898 deserved another look.

To say that the people of Hamilton County were feeling patriotic that Fourth of July would be a gross understatement.

Not only did the holiday occur in the midst of the Spanish-American War, but just the day before, the Americans had decimated the Spanish fleet in the battle of Santiago de Cuba.

(In case you need a refresher on the war . . . Cuba was fighting to win its independence from Spain. During the hostilities, the USS Maine was sent to Cuba to look after American interests, but the battleship was blown up in Havana's harbor less than a month after its arrival. Although it wasn't clear if the explosion was an accident, or the result of something nefarious – and still isn't – the sinking of the Maine provided an excuse for the U. S. to enter the war.)

With America's recent victory in mind, the courthouse square was "profusely decorated" for the holiday – presumably in red, white and blue – and "everybody who ever had a flag resurrected it and gave it a prominent place either on their lawns or in front of their homes."

That morning, a crowd estimated at about 5,000 gathered in downtown Noblesville to see a parade organized by the local chapter of the Modern Woodmen fraternal benefit society and the Civil War veterans of the G.A.R.

Notes scribbled on the back of a script from Yankee Doodle Dandy . . .

gotten had he given an answer? Instead he just kept blathering on and on about how he's the best ever this and that and Biden's the worst and yadda, yadda, yadda.

FROM YOUR reactions, a lot of you seemed to agree with Uncle Sam's sentiments last week. We all find it pretty easy to love our country . . . it's just a challenge being happy with the way that it's being run.

ALONG THOSE lines, did you watch that debate last week between the current and past presidents? Just one man's opinion, but here are some takeaways:

If there was an award for exaggerating, one Donald J. Trump would win hands down

If there was an award for bragging, one Donald J. Trump would win hands down

If there was an award for stretching the truth, one Donald J. Trump would win hands down

If there was an award for ego, one Donald J. Trump would win hands down

Yet with all that, he appears to be a better choice than a very frail and elderly Joe Biden.

YOU KNOW, I saw on Youtube an interview Oprah had with Trump back in '88 or '89. To be fair, his ego was still awfully large. However, it was FAR MORE in check than what it is today. He was much more likeable and MUCH easier to listen to. If you get a chance, it's worth checking out.

DOESN'T TRUMP have any advisors brave enough to tell him to stop saying "I" all the time . . . or maybe just to answer a question rather than continually respond to what we're all sick of hearing?

One of the debate questions was about the exploding price of child care and I wonder how many votes from parents with children Trump might have

LOOKING FOR anything to do – other than hit some of the great local events this holiday?

Here're a couple of thoughts.

Watch a patriotic movie. We'll come back to Yankee Doodle Dandy (my favorite), but a couple others might include Independence Day, Band of Brothers (OK, more than a movie), Mr. Smith Goes to Washington, Saving Private Ryan, The American President, West Wing (OK, another one that's more than a movie) and Young Mr. Lincoln.

No, they're not all about the specific date of July 4. But all show the American spirit in one form or another – and all bring at least some reminder of why this is indeed the greatest nation on the planet.

YANKEE DOODLE Dandy from 1942 starred James Cagney as George M. Cohan. For anyone who doesn't know George, he wrote The Yankee Doodle Boy, Over There, You're a Grand Old Flag and many more. Cohan told everyone he was born on July 4. But his birth certificate said he was born a day earlier. Still, who's counting? Cohan passed away before I was born, but Cagney's portrayal made this old newspaper vagabond a fan from the days of delivering papers on a bicycle!

Navy Club Ship 29 Picked As Grand Marshal

Parade Map

Noblesville Mayor Chris Jensen has chosen Hamilton County Navy Ship 29 as the grand marshal of this year's Fourth of July Stars & Stripes Forever Parade sponsored by Gaylor Electric. The Hamilton County chapter of the national service organization is comprised of members who have served or are serving in the United States Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard.

"Our military has been defending our nation and democracy for 248 years, and I'm proud to have the Hamilton County Navy Ship 29 serve as our grand marshal," Jensen said. "Independence Day is a time to gather and celebrate the values and freedoms our nation holds dear."

"We're honored and very proud to represent the City of Noblesville," said Ship 29 Commander Dave Holloway. "It's very special to me. I never thought I'd be doing this. Noblesville is our home and I'm very proud of the city."

The Hamilton County Navy Club Ship 29 meets every fourth Wednesday of the month at Ginger's Café, 1111 S. 10th St. in Noblesville. Dinner is at 5:30 p.m. with the meeting at 6:30 p.m. Annual dues are $25. The Navy Club provides scholarships, assists in hosting patriotic events, and helps veterans get benefits.

"We are open to all veterans," said Holloway, a 1975 graduate of Noblesville High School and U.S. Navy veteran. "We currently have over 50 members, but are always looking for more. Being grand marshal helps provides us exposure. We're excited to get our faces and name out in front of the community. Hopefully someone might see us and want to learn more about our organization or join."

This year's free festivities will take place on Thursday, July 4, with the theme of "Stars and Stripes Forever in Noblesville." The fun begins at 4 p.m. with the downtown. Due to the construction work taking place on State Road 32, this year's parade route will use Clinton Street so Logan Street can remain open to east-west traffic through downtown.

The parade will begin at the corner of 16th Street and Harrison Street and will travel south on 16th to Clinton Street; west on Clinton to 9th Street; north on 9th to Monument Street; and east on Monument to 16th Street where it will end.

The free Fireworks Festival sponsored by IDI Composites follows the parade from 6 to 10 p.m. at Forest Park with activities for kids, teens and adults, food vendors and more. Kids of America will perform on the Pacers Sports and Entertainment Main Stage from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Free trolley rides will be available from Noblesville High School's parking lot to Forest Park throughout and after the festival. At 10 p.m., the annual fireworks display will begin from the Forest Park Golf Course, sponsored by Midwest Paving, East Bank Apartments, Meijer, and Promenade Trails.

A Fireworks viewing area with nearby parking will be available at Federal Hill Commons.

Kids in America will perform iconic '80s music on the Pacers Sports and Entertainment Main Stage from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

The 2024 Noblesville Fireworks Festival has announced details for the free events taking place on Thursday, July 4 – beginning at 4 p.m. with the Stars & Stripes Forever Parade through Downtown Noblesville. The Noblesville Fourth of July parade, festival, and fireworks display is the longest continuously running celebration in Central Indiana and an annual tradition in Noblesville since 1997.

"The Fourth of July is always a special day for my family and so many families throughout Noblesville and our festivities have become a summer staple that brings our community together," Mayor Chris Jensen said. "In addition to the festivities, we also take this opportunity to express our gratitude to those who have served and continue to serve our country, safeguarding our freedoms."

The day kicks off at 4 p.m. with the annual Fourth of July Parade through downtown Noblesville, sponsored by Gaylor Electric. Registration to participate in the parade is $25 (nonprofits are not charged) and entries must be submitted by June 28. Forms are available at www.NoblesvilleFireworksFestival.com.

The Fireworks Festival, sponsored by IDI Composites International, will take place at Forest Park from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. The event will include traditional park amenities such as trails, shelters, shade and playgrounds, including the newly remodeled south playground; along with festival attractions like inflatables, balloon twisters and face painters in the Kids Zone. The Teen Zone also will have age-appropriate inflatables, Spyder bungee jump and a rock wall. New attractions this year include the return of a zip-line, inflatable corn maze and a two-person gyroscope. Kids in America will perform iconic '80s music on the Pacers Sports and Entertainment Main Stage from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The festivities will culminate with the annual fireworks show, which will begin at 10 p.m. and is sponsored by Midwest Paving, East Bank Apartments, Meijer and Promenade Trails.

In addition to all the free events planned, Forest Park also features a limited VIP section where families and friends can purchase tables for the evening. These tables offer up-close seating to the live music performance, an exceptional view of the fireworks, separate bathrooms, and a great meeting place to safely gather and eat in between activities. VIP table groups may bring in their own food and drink, participate in a table-decorating contest, and get access to separate VIP restroom options. Tables seat eight people and cost $160. Funds received for VIP section accommodations help defray costs of hosting the community event.

Public parking will not be available at the park. Parking permits for the Noblesville Aquatic Center are available to purchase for $25 prior to July 4. Proper tags must be displayed to be able to enter the north entrance from State Road 19 during the festival. The July 4th Planning Committee has made traffic flow improvements to better manage end of event travel from Forest Park for motorists, pedestrians and trolley riders. The Noblesville Fireworks Festival offers free shuttle routes throughout and after the event to assist guests in getting to Forest Park from designated off-site parking lots.

VIP Tables and parking passes may be purchased online at www.NoblesvilleFireworksFestival.com or by calling the Noblesville Parks Department at 317-776-6350.

Pancakes & Lights Over Morse – Yum, Yum!

The Kiwanis Club of Cicero is thrilled to announce its annual Pancake Breakfast, held in conjunction with the "Lights Over Morse" event. This community-favorite breakfast will take place on Saturday in the Red Bridge Community Center from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

For a free-will donation, patrons can enjoy a delicious breakfast featuring pancakes, sausage links, fruit, coffee, orange juice or milk. It's a perfect opportunity for the community to come together, enjoy a hearty meal, and support a great cause. All of the proceeds from the Pancake Breakfast will be reinvested into the surrounding communities to support various Kiwanis Club initiatives. programs, community services and educational projects.

"We are excited to host our annual Pancake Breakfast during 'Lights Over Morse,' an event that brings our community together in celebration. The support we receive from this event allows us to continue our mission of making a positive impact in the lives of children," said Todd Clevenger President of the Kiwanis Club of Cicero. "I've been a member for five years and have seen where the proceeds go. Donations go to support our club's literacy initiatives which include scholarships for graduating seniors and free books to every student at Hamilton Heights Elementary School. They also support our King's Treasurer program where children who otherwise would not get to experience the joys of waking up on Christmas morning to presents

Marching in the parade were Woodmen (500 of them, if the newspaper ad can be believed!) and Foresters (the Woodmen's drill teams.) The Noblesville and Lapel bands provided music and there were several floats, two of which were singled out in the newspaper accounts.

The Woodsmen's 50 foot-long float portrayed the Maine, complete with the battleship's turrets, big guns and smoke stacks belching smoke. The other float, created by the Foresters, depicted a gray-haired woodsman at work in a forest while a raccoon frolicked overhead in the trees. (I'd love to see a photo of that.)

Following the parade, the local G. A. R. post dedicated two cannons which were placed on opposite corners of the courthouse yard.

The featured address was delivered by Indianapolis politician John L. Griffith, while C. T. Heydecker of Illinois, the chairman of the board of directors of the Modern Woodmen's head camp (headquarters,) spoke later to picnickers at Dill's Grove. (Dill's Grove was southeast of the city, somewhere near Stony Creek.)

The afternoon was reserved for mule, foot, egg, wheelbarrow, barrel and sack races as well as a contest to see who could climb a greased pole.

A competition was also held on South Ninth Street between the Sharpsville and Anderson Foresters drill teams. Sharpsville won the $50 prize.

Perhaps the day's most eagerly awaited attraction was a balloon ascension by Prof. J. E. Baldwin, which was scheduled for that evening. Prof. Baldwin didn't merely go up in his balloon, he also performed acrobatic feats in mid-air.

Unfortunately, just days before the Fourth, Prof. Baldwin had been accepted into the United States Signal Corps and was no longer available, so a Prof. Wright replaced him.

There's no indication Prof. Wright did anything but take his balloon up and land safely, but the crowd still considered it a success.

The "grandest Fourth of July celebration that Noblesville ever witnessed" ended with an equally grand fireworks display.
